DENISE DEBARTOLO YORK & JOHN YORK

CO-CHAIRMEN

Denise and John York bring long and distinguished careers in sports and business to their roles as Co-Chairs of the San Francisco 49ers, where they combine their passion for building a championship team with their commitment to being the best possible business partners and community citizens.

A LEGACY IN BUSINESS AND PRO SPORTS

Since Denise's father Edward J. DeBartolo Sr., purchased the 49ers in 1977, she has been an integral part of 49ers football, including 56 playoff contests and five Super Bowl victories. Earlier in her career, Denise served as President of the Pittsburgh Penguins hockey team. Under her leadership, the Penguins were revitalized and transformed into a championship team, winning the organization's first Stanley Cup in 1991. In doing so, she became just the third woman to have her name engraved on hockey's famed championship trophy.

A successful entrepreneur, John spent years as Senior Vice President/Director of Racing Operations for the DeBartolo Corporation, instituting programs designed to enhance the fan experience and raise the profile of thoroughbred horse racing. John, a noted pathologist, began his business career in 1982 as Founder of DeYor Laboratories in Youngstown, Ohio. From three employees, he molded the company into a 500-person operation with facilities in three states before selling the company to Corning, Inc., in 1993.

As co-chairs of the 49ers, Denise and John provide the resources and guidance to uphold the 49ers celebrated history and oversee the team's relationship with the Commissioner of the National Football League and other team owners.

TAKING A LEADERSHIP ROLE IN THE NFL

Denise and John's dedication to the sport of football extends to the top levels of the NFL.

Denise previously served as a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame Committee, where she helped the League's ongoing support of the museum that pays tribute to the triumphs of professional football's greatest stars, including 31 legendary members of the San Francisco 49ers.

John is Chairman of the NFL's Health & Safety Advisory Committee, which was established in 2011. He is also a member of the League's Audit, Health & Safety Medical and International committees, the latter of which he previously served as Chairman. Under his leadership, the 49ers became the first team to play a regular season game outside the borders of the United States, taking on the Arizona Cardinals in front of 100,000 fans at Azteca Stadium in Mexico City in 2005. Under his direction, the League expanded its presence abroad with regular season games at Wembley Stadium in London, England. San Francisco has played in London twice, defeating the Denver Broncos in 2010 and the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2013. In 2022, the 49ers defeated the Cardinals at Azteca Stadium in Mexico City.

CELEBRATING THE TEAM'S LEGENDARY HISTORY

Denise and John have played a pivotal role in fostering tremendous relationships with former players and coaches to help celebrate more than seven monumental decades of 49ers football. Over the past decade, Denise and John have brought back every Hall of Fame enshrinee from the 49ers to be honored for their tremendous contributions to Bay Area sports.

Levi's® Stadium opened in 2014 with one of the premiere features of the venue being the 49ers Museum presented by Foxconn, which houses the Edward J. DeBartolo Sr. 49ers Hall of Fame. The two-level, 20,000 square foot space is dedicated to showcasing the past, present and future of the 49ers' organization and its commitment to education and innovation.

THE YORKS' GOLDEN NUGGETS

- John is Chairman of the NFL's Health & Safety Advisory Committee, which was established in 2011. He is also a member of both the League's Audit and International committees, the latter of which he previously served as Chairman.
- The 49ers were named the 2017 ESPN Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year and the 2017 Pop Warner Little Scholars Team of the Year. The 49ers and the 49ers Foundation were previously recognized as Beyond Sport's 2015 Sport Team of the Year for Outstanding Philanthropic Sports Organization and the 2013 winner of the prestigious Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Steve Patterson Award for Sports Philanthropy.
- For the past 30-plus years, the 49ers Foundation has educated and empowered Bay Area youth through a host of innovative, community-based strategies. The 49ers Foundation has distributed more than $70 million back into the community.
- In 2014, the 49ers were among the first professional sports organizations to develop and deliver STEAM learning concepts for youth with the launch of the Denise DeBartolo York Education Center at Levi's Stadium.
- The ongoing commitment to promote education is also demonstrated in the 49ers STEM Leadership Institute (SLI), a collaborative education venture in cooperation with Chevron, the Santa Clara Unified School District and the Silicon Valley Education Foundation. The SLI program provides over 300 hours of rigorous STEM curriculum to cohorts of 60 high-achieving 7th through 12th graders each year from Cabrillo Middle School and Santa Clara High School.
- In 2020, Denise and John's impact on Bay Area youth reached another milestone. That year's SLI graduating class was the first cohort to complete the program from start to finish, with 100 percent of the senior class graduating in May and heading off to four-year universities.
- The SLI program has also garnered several awards including the California School Board Association's highest honor, the Golden Bell award for Expanded Learning and Engagement.
- Denise served as President of the Pittsburgh Penguins hockey team and became just the third woman to have her name engraved on the Stanley Cup.
- John spent years as Senior Vice President/Director of Racing Operations for the DeBartolo Corporation, instituting programs designed to enhance the fan experience and raise the profile of thoroughbred horse racing.
- John began his business career in 1982 as Founder of DeYor Laboratories in Youngstown, OH.

Under the guidance of Denise and John, the team hosts its annual alumni weekend event to give all players who have donned the red and gold throughout the team's history a chance to catch up with old friends. They have also worked with players like Joe Montana and the late Dwight Clark, and the members of the 1981 49ers defense to re-enact and commemorate some of the team's most famous plays such as "The Catch" and the goal line stand that propelled the team to its first Super Bowl victory. As the team said goodbye to Candlestick Park in 2013, the 49ers commemorated many great memories by honoring the Top 10 moments in the storied history of the venue by welcoming back the alumni who helped make them all possible.

ENHANCING THE FAN EXPERIENCE

Denise and John are dedicated to embracing the passion of 49ers fans everywhere. They are committed to giving fans an opportunity to experience the excitement of 49ers football year-round wherever they live around the world and have made it their mission to embrace the Faithful as family.

Levi's® Stadium is the culmination of their vision to create an unparalleled game day experience for 49ers fans. The venue not only provides fans with the ultimate place to enjoy 49ers football, but it also plays host to a number of world-class sports and entertainment events throughout the year. Through the integration of innovative technology, sustainable practices and groundbreaking design elements, Levi's® Stadium accurately reflects the best of the Bay Area while bringing fans closer to the game. In 2026, the venue will become the first stadium to host both the Super Bowl (LX) and FIFA World Cup in the same calendar year.

The team is continuing to invest in the stadium to ensure it excites fans for years to come. Starting this season, the fan experience will be vastly improved – from renovating the team store to building new videoboards, which are the largest outdoor 4K videoboards using glass-to-glass technology in the league.

Visitors to Levi's® Stadium immediately notice wide, open concourses that look into the lower bowl, so fans don't miss a minute of the action while ordering food. The high number of points of sale for concessions and merchandise, and the number of restrooms were designed to limit congestion.

Those who visit the Solar Terrace on the roof of the stadium's Suite Tower are treated to unbelievable views, while being shaded by solar panel arrays that helped make the venue the first NFL stadium to open with LEED Gold certification. In 2024, the stadium extended its commitment to sustainability by earning a third LEED Gold Certification from the U.S. Green Building Council (2014, 2016, 2024).

Levi's® Stadium features signature locations in the 49ers Museum presented by Foxconn and the 49ers Team Store presented by Visa, in conjunction with the venue's special events programs, to make the venue a year-round destination.

Levi's® Stadium garnered international recognition by receiving the prestigious honor of Sports Business Journal's 2015 Sports Facility of the Year and the 2015 Sports Venue of the Year at the StadiumBusiness Awards in Barcelona, Spain. The venue has also received several recognitions from the sustainability industry - including the 2017 StadiumBusiness Environmental Award - for its environmentally friendly design and operations plan, both of which were priorities of the York family. In 2024, the Green Sports Alliance honored Levi's® Stadium in their Play to Zero Awards for the venue's exceptional conservation of energy and water.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE IN THE LIVES OF OTHERS

Under the leadership of Denise and John, 49ers Community Impact and the 49ers Foundation are recognized among the most impactful in all of professional sports. The 49ers were named the 2017 ESPN Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year and the 2017 Pop Warner Little Scholars Team of the Year. The 49ers were also previously recognized as Beyond Sport's 2015 Sport Team of the Year for Outstanding Philanthropic Sports Organization and the 2013 winner of the prestigious Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Steve Patterson Award for Excellence in Sports Philanthropy.

Since 1991, the 49ers Foundation has served its mission, to

"On and off the field, talent alone will not lead to success. The game changer for promising future leaders is to provide a stimulating environment where their natural talent and drive will be fed by motivating mentors, meaningful activities, and academic enrichment. The 49ers STEM Leadership Institute's vision is to be a leader in STEM education, preparing and inspiring talented learners to meet the challenges of the global society through innovation, collaboration, and creative problem solving."

harness football to educate and empower Bay Area youth through direct and beneficiary programs throughout Bay Area counties and beyond. The Foundation leverages a host of innovative, community-based strategies, that includes supporting long-standing community partners like the 49ers STEM Leadership Institute presented by Chevron, Fresh Lifelines for Youth (FLY), City Year of San Jose/Silicon Valley, and African American Female Excellence. The 49ers Foundation has invested over $70 million back into the historically underserved communities in support of its commitment to remain faithful to the next generation. The York family believes that, if a child can learn to learn, they will continue to educate themselves for the rest of their lives.

Within the 49ers Foundation's direct programming, 49ers EDU presented by Chevron is a reflection of the York family's passion and commitment to providing and improving educational opportunities for young people in the Bay Area. The program provides a myriad of opportunities to engage learners, teachers and families in standards-aligned and community-building educational programming—all free of charge. In 2014, the 49ers were among the first professional sports organizations to develop and deliver STEAM learning concepts for youth with the launch of the Denise DeBartolo York Education Center at Levi's® Stadium, and the corresponding field trip program that runs through it to this day. The three-pronged program offers a series of three free lessons, including an on-site STEAM visit to the stadium, for students in grades K-8 by integrating innovative concepts that support classroom learning in the community and beyond. Since its inception, 49ers EDU has engaged more than 300,000 students in STEAM conversations through its innovative programming – at no cost. The mission of 49ers EDU is simple: to show students and teachers in kindergarten through eighth grade that education can go beyond textbooks and traditional lessons, and to light a fire for young people for STEAM concepts, so they have a stronger proclivity to pursue these subjects throughout their education. Fortified with a team of dedicated educators, 49ers EDU teaches students the principles of STEAM through something they love -- football.

The ongoing commitment to promote education is also demonstrated in the 49ers STEM Leadership Institute (SLI), a collaborative education venture in cooperation with Chevron, the Santa Clara Unified School District and the Silicon Valley Education Foundation funded by the 49ers Foundation. The SLI program provides over 300 hours of rigorous STEM curriculum to cohorts of 60 high-achieving 7th through 12th graders each year from Cabrillo Middle School and Santa Clara High School. Each student selected into SLI gains access to the six-year program, which is meant to strengthen students STEM-related skills to prepare them for eventual entry into the workforce. In the fall of 2016, the program expanded to Santa Clara High School (SCHS) and now serves over 360 students from 7th through 12th grade.

In 2020, Denise and John's impact on Bay Area youth reached another milestone. That year's graduating class was the first cohort to complete the SLI program from start to finish, with 100 percent of the senior class graduating and heading off to four-year universities. The program now has four cohorts of students in college and has maintained a 100 percent graduation rate. Many of the students are pursuing STEM-related degrees, achieving the York's goal to create educational opportunities for youth to follow their passions. The SLI program has also garnered several awards including the California School Board Association's highest honor, the Golden Bell award for Expanded Learning and Engagement.

Football has been in the York family for over 40 years and 49ers PREP presented by U.S. Bank, a direct service program of the 49ers Foundation, is the evolution of the family's continuing efforts to promote health and wellness through the game of football. 49ers PREP is more than just football, it's the 49ers Foundation's boots-on-the-ground approach to serving Bay Area youth through sport. The direct impact of 49ers PREP can be seen in the over 100,000 participants who have engaged in their in-school programming since 2014. 49ers PREP offers free non-contact, co-ed football camps and clinics to kids of all ages, teaching the importance of fitness and fun. 49ers PREP additionally launched a free flag football program for girls and boys ahead of the 2018 season. In February of 2022, the California Interscholastic Federation (CIF) unanimously passed the motion to make girls flag football a varsity sport across the state. 49ers PREP hosted girls flag football jamborees, events for female athletes at Levi's® Stadium, and launched a player of the week program to celebrate female flag football players throughout the inaugural season. The goal set forth by the York family is to continue to teach more children the importance of teamwork, goal setting and how to live a healthy lifestyle in a fun, safe and educational environment.

In recognition of their community involvement, Denise and John have been honored with a number of accolades including the Children Discovery Museum's Legacy for Children Award, City Year's Service Leadership Award, Silicon Valley Exemplary Community Leadership Award by Silicon Valley FACES, Outstanding Corporate Philanthropy Award at the Catholic Charities/Catholic Youth Organization's Loaves and Fishes Dinner, and annual inclusion on the Top Corporate Philanthropists list for the San Jose/Silicon Valley Business Journal and the San Francisco Business Times.

Through the York's family foundation, an excess of $3 million over the past three years has been donated to support programs under the broad categories of Education and Literacy, Religious (multi-denominational), Underprivileged, Healthcare, Elderly, Diversity (including ethnic, LGBTQ+, gender and others).

Their passion for community involvement extends beyond the Bay Area as well. John has been honored with Loyola University's Stritch Medal – the highest honor awarded by the school – for his ongoing contributions to his alma mater. The couple was honored with the Youngstown Hearing and Speech Center's Great Communicators Award in recognition of their philanthropic leadership. They continue to support the Boys and Girls Club of Youngstown, Youngstown Gleaners Food Bank and the Mahoning Valley United Way, while also being intimately involved with the Edward J. DeBartolo Memorial Scholarship Foundation, which awards college scholarships to deserving Youngstown area high school seniors. This year marked over $2 million given out by the Edward J. DeBartolo Memorial Scholarship Foundation.

Denise continues to provide mentoring and tuition assistance for at-risk youth throughout all levels of education. Denise "adopted" Williamson Elementary School in Youngstown through the United Way Success after Six program, and her donation sponsors the after-school program. She also supports Rescue Mission of Mahoning Valley, Akron Children's Hospital Mahoning Valley, Beatitude House, Youngstown Neighborhood Development, Angels for Animals, YWCA Bright Futures Scholarship Program, Women in Entrepreneurship Program at Youngstown Business Incubator and made a substantial contribution to the new Youngstown State University Veteran's Resource Center. Denise is also passionate about cancer-related causes, including The Serenity Garden at the Joanie Abdu Comprehensive Breast Care Center and continues to support the Mercy Health Foundation.

Through the guidance and leadership of Denise and John, the 49ers organization has been highly regarded for its corporate philanthropy. In 2024, players, 49ers staff, family and alumni volunteered 800 hours of their time serving over 80 organizations through programming that benefited over 1,500 children and 800 adults.

PUTTING FAMILY FIRST

Though Denise and John have accomplished much in their professional careers, they first define themselves as husband, wife, and parents.

Their eldest son, Jed, now carries on the family's legacy -- begun by his grandfather Edward J. DeBartolo Sr., his Uncle Eddie DeBartolo Jr., and his parents -- by serving as CEO of the 49ers. Their twin daughters, Jenna and Mara, have worked in the Napa Valley wine industry for several years and are active participants with the 49ers community efforts in their role as Chief Impact Officers. Their son, Tony, was an entrepreneur whose true passion lied in philanthropy, which led him to support a number of non-profit efforts and work closely with incarcerated youth. The York children share their parents' passion for community service and are very active in the 49ers Foundation. Denise and John have two grandchildren, Jaxon and Brixton, the sons of Jed and his wife, Danielle.

JED YORK

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

21ST NFL SEASON × 21ST WITH 49ERS

BUILDING A CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

As chief executive officer of the San Francisco 49ers, Jed York oversees all aspects of the organization. Now in his 21st year with the team and 16th as CEO, York has been a driving force behind the 49ers success on and off the field during that time.

During York's tenure, the team has won five NFC West Division titles (2011-12, 2019 and 2022-23), advanced to seven NFC Championship Games (2011-13, 2019 & 2021-23) and three Super Bowls (Super Bowl XLVII, LIV and LVIII).

His strong leadership was also instrumental in providing the team and its fans a state-of-the-art new home. Designed to set a new standard for the stadium experience, Levi's® Stadium has become known as one of the most iconic sports and entertainment venues in the world. The building has garnered international acclaim having been named 2015 Sports Venue of the Year by the Sports Business Journal and Venue of the Year at the 2015 StadiumBusiness Awards in Barcelona, Spain. Leveraging technology and sustainability, Levi's® Stadium has also generated international acclaim for its environmental responsibility. The venue was the first NFL stadium to twice be LEED certified, and Levi's® Stadium was named the 2016 Green Sports Alliance Environmental NFL Innovators of the Year and the 2017 StadiumBusiness Awards Environmental Stadium of the Year. In 2024, the Green Sports Alliance honored Levi's® Stadium in their Play to Zero Awards for the venue's exceptional conservation of energy and water.

Now in its 12th season of operation, Levi's® Stadium has already successfully hosted two NFC Championship Games, Super Bowl 50, the 2019 College Football Playoff National Championship Game, WrestleMania 31, the Copa America Centenario and CONCACAF Gold Cup, the 2015 NHL Stadium Series, the International Championship Cup featuring soccer powers such as Manchester United and FC Barcelona, multiple Pac-12 Football Championship Games, and stadium concert tours headlined by Beyoncé and U2.

In 2026, the venue will become the first stadium to host both the Super Bowl (LX) and FIFA World Cup in the same calendar year.

RECOGNIZING THE 49ERS FAITHFUL

A 49ers fan since birth, York recognizes that the success of the 49ers hinges on the team's Faithful fans, and he is committed to honoring them for their passion and enthusiasm.

Since the time Levi's® Stadium was just a concept, creating the ultimate game day experience for 49ers fans has been at the core of the York family's vision. To design the venue and bring that vision to life, York and the 49ers incorporated one of the Bay Area's most notable natural resources – innovative technology.

With technology woven into its backbone, the building not only allows visitors to customize their own individual experience through the use of the Levi's® Stadium App, but it is also able to seamlessly evolve throughout the decades to come. In addition to groundbreaking design elements that bring fans closer to the game, the venue is a showcase for the region's sustainable efforts and world-class wine and cuisine. Fans have also come to recognize Levi's® Stadium as a year-round destination for private events and a museum dedicated to honoring the team's storied history, while also using football as a means to educate Bay Area youth.

As a result of York's leadership, the team is continuing to invest in the stadium to ensure it excites fans for years to come. Starting this season, the fan experience will be vastly improved – from renovating the team store and updating concessions areas, to building new videoboards, which are the largest outdoor 4K videoboards using glass-to-glass technology in the league.

Under York's leadership, the team established the Edward J. DeBartolo Sr. 49ers Hall of Fame in 2009, to commemorate the significant accomplishments of some of the team's biggest stars and key contributors. Named for his grandfather and the beloved patriarch of the 49ers, the Hall of Fame automatically inducted those 49ers greats who have either had their jersey numbers retired by the team or have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. York, shortly thereafter, announced the Hall of Fame's inaugural inductee, his uncle, Edward J. DeBartolo Jr. who

Also located inside the 49ers Museum is the Denise DeBartolo York Education Center, which provides learning platforms that connect, inspire and engage K-8 students from Santa Clara and throughout the Bay Area throughout the year. Featuring content-rich lessons in science, technology, engineering, art and mathematics, the highly interactive center promotes physical activity and valuable life skills. Since the program's inception in 2014, the program has provided trajectory and mindset-changing experiences to more than 250,000 participants.

CARRYING ON THE FAMILY'S LEGACY

A 49ers York's roots with the 49ers run deep. He is the oldest child of Denise and John York, the co-chairmen of the team. York's uncle and godfather, Eddie DeBartolo, also known to fans as "Mr. D", has long served as a mentor.

York began his career as a financial analyst at Guggenheim Partners, a diversified financial services firm. He worked in the firm's New York office in several areas, including private wealth management, hedge funds risk analysis, and collateralized debt obligations. York currently serves on four key NFL committees: Stadium, Media O&O (NFL's owned and operated media businesses), Business Ventures, as well as Fan Engagement and Major Events, assigned to address facets of National Football League business.

Born and raised in Youngstown, OH, York was a student athlete at Cardinal Mooney High School where he was captain of the baseball team as well as student body president. After high school, York decided to carry on a family tradition by attending the University of Notre Dame, where he earned a degree in both finance and history. York was a member of Phi Alpha Theta, the National History Honors Society.

York credits his parents, his uncle Eddie, and his grandfather Edward DeBartolo Sr. as being positive role models and for teaching him character values such as integrity, a strong work ethic, and respect for others. He is pleased to carry on his family's commitment to community by serving as a board member at Tipping Point Community, Silicon Valley Leadership Group, Operation HOPE, as well as the University of Notre Dame Advisory Council.

Besides his tremendous passion for the 49ers, York enjoys traveling, fishing, and playing cards, which he learned from his grandfather.

Jed lives in the Bay Area with his wife, Danielle, and two sons, Jaxon and Brixton.

JENNA YORK & MARA YORK

CHIEF IMPACT OFFICERS

As Co-Owners and Chief Impact Officers of the San Francisco 49ers, Jenna and Mara York serve as the touchstone for the team's charitable endeavors. Philanthropy and the 49ers Foundation have always been a big part of the fabric of the York family, so giving back and getting involved in the community has been ingrained in Jenna and Mara their whole lives. The York sisters grew up around the 49ers and now serve as board members for the 49ers Foundation and help set the team's philanthropic strategies. Jenna and Mara have played a key role in growing the 49ers Foundation over the last ten years and have homed in on educating and empowering Bay Area youth and beyond.

The 49ers Foundation has invested over $70 million back into historically underserved communities in support of its commitment to remain faithful to the next generation. The 49ers Foundation shares their proceeds with legacy nonprofit partners African American Female Excellence, City Year San Jose/Silicon Valley, Fresh Lifelines for Youth, 826 Valencia and the 49ers STEM Leadership Institute. The York family believes that if a child can learn to learn, they will continue to educate themselves for the rest of their lives.

During the opening of Levi's® Stadium, Jenna and Mara played a key role in the launch of the Denise DeBartolo York Education Center, the first and only classroom located in a professional sports stadium. This space offers hands-on, project-based learning in a dynamic and technological environment. The programs, including STEM, are based on a common, core-aligned curriculum and tied into football so that students in grades K through 8 can learn in a fun and unique way. During the Covid pandemic, the Yorks worked to turn a lot of the programs virtual and have continued to use that technology to reach more people in the Bay Area and beyond.

49ers EDU and 49ers PREP presented by U.S. Bank, both direct service programs of the Foundation have reached over 600,000 students since their inceptions. 49ers EDU has engaged more than 300,000 students in STEAM lessons through its innovative programming at no cost to students or communities. 49ers PREP focuses on bringing health and wellness resources into underserved communities by working with community centers and local schools to make an impact and promote active lives through the game of football. The direct impact of 49ers PREP can be seen in the nearly 200,000 participants who have engaged in their in-school programming since 2014. 49ers PREP offers free non-contact, co-ed football camps and clinics to kids of all ages, teaching the importance of fitness and fun.

Under the guidance of Jenna and Mara, the 49ers championed girls flag football and played a major role in getting the state of California to recognize it as a varsity sport. 49ers PREP hosted girls flag football jamborees, events for female athletes at Levi's® Stadium, and launched a player of the week program to celebrate female flag football players throughout the inaugural season. California is now the eighth state to have girls flag football as a varsity sport. The 49ers provide a free flag football program for youth and have served over 500,000 student athletes.

In 2021, the 49ers Foundation established the Red & Gold Society, the NFL's first-ever annual giving program. This program has raised $3 million so far, which has allowed the organization to reach more kids, through the classroom and through physical fitness, than ever before. With the help of Jenna and Mara, the 49ers were named the 2017 ESPN Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year and the 2017 Pop Warner Little Scholars Team of the Year. The 49ers were also previously recognized as Beyond Sport's 2015 Sport Team of the Year for Outstanding Philanthropic Sports Organization and the 2013 winner of the prestigious Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Steve Patterson Award for Excellence in Sports Philanthropy.

Jenna and Mara also actively participate in the 49ers Community Relations department's initiatives such as the 49ers Community Tuesday program, ensuring impactful engagement with nonprofit organizations, player community award nominations like Walter Payton Man of the Year, Salute to Service Award, and 49ers Perry/Yonamine Unity Award. In 2024, players, coaches, football executives and their families volunteered over 800 hours of their time serving more than 80 community groups through programming that benefited over 1,500 youth and 800 adults through Community Relations initiatives.

Outside of their work with the 49ers, Jenna and Mara are Founders and Managing Partners of JennaMarise Wines. Growing up surrounded by wine enthusiasts, particularly their maternal grandfather – a true wine connoisseur – they developed an early affection for wine that blossomed into a deep passion for winemaking. Throughout their college years, they spent summers immersed in all aspects of the wine industry, working in wineries both domestically and internationally. Jenna and Mara learned the business from the ground up, gaining hands-on experience in everything from front-office operations and tasting rooms to production facilities and vineyards. To deepen their knowledge, Jenna and Mara worked with renowned winemakers in California and Argentina and traveled extensively through the wine regions of France, Italy, and Australia. This lifelong dream of producing their own wines has come to fruition through JennaMarise.

They share their family's passion for building a championship team with their commitment to being the best possible business partners and community citizens.

AL GUIDO

PRESIDENT

19TH NFL SEASON × 12TH WITH 49ERS

Al Guido is one of the sports and entertainment industry's leading operators given his more than 20 years of experience leading NFL, NHL, and NBA franchises and award-winning industry consultancies. In his role as President of the San Francisco 49ers, Al Guido is responsible for all strategic initiatives and business operations for the five-time Super Bowl-winning NFL franchise and its renowned management of Levi's® Stadium. Guido concurrently serves as Chairman and CEO of Elevate, a best-in-class full-service consulting firm supporting high-performing organizations in sports and beyond. A two-time Sports Business Journal "Forty Under 40" honoree, Guido is dedicated to leveraging the power of sports and entertainment to generate positive impact across the globe.

Named to his current position in 2016, Guido is in his tenth year as Team President after serving as Chief Operating Officer from 2014-16. Under his leadership Levi's® Stadium has become a preeminent entertainment venue, hosting the 2019 College Football Playoff National Championship Game, Super Bowl 50, WrestleMania 31, the 2015 NHL Stadium Series, international soccer matches, as well as sold-out concert world tours including Taylor Swift Beyoncé, Coldplay, and the Rolling Stones. Guido continues to play a key role in attracting major events to the stadium, and in 2026, Levi's® Stadium will become the first-ever venue to host the FIFA World Cup and Super Bowl in the same calendar year.

Under Guido's leadership, the 49ers have earned global recognition for innovation in technology, analytics, and community impact. The organization has been repeatedly listed as one of the Best Places to Work in the Bay Area and was named ESPN's 2017 "Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year," and named to Front Office Sports' inaugural list of "Most Impactful" brands in 2024. The 49ers front office has achieved records for sales and renewals of season ticket memberships, suite and premium seating memberships, and corporate partnerships.

Levi's® Stadium, which is among the most-booked outdoor NFL stadiums, was designed, constructed, and completed on time and under budget under Guido's supervision, and boasts an impressive collection of industry awards, earning recognition as the 2015 "Sports Venue of the Year" from both the Sports Business Journal and StadiumBusiness Awards. In 2021, the venue launched the Member Inclusive Menu (MIM) and became the first in sports history to include food and beverage in the cost of season tickets. Now in its fifth season, MIM has already been recognized as the Best New Concept in Concessions by VenuesNow. Additionally, the team's Executive Huddle presented by SAP has earned international recognition as the most innovative venue technology from the 2019 Leaders Sports Awards and 2020 StadiumBusiness Awards. The stadium was also recognized as part of the 2015 White House Smart Cities Initiative, earned 2016 Department of Homeland Security's SAFETY Act Designation, and the 2019 NCS4 Stadium Security Award. Levi's® Stadium has been LEED Gold certified three times (2014, 2016, 2024) by the U.S. Green Building Council. In 2024, the venue was recognized in the Green Sports Alliance Play to Zero Awards for its exceptional conservation of water and energy. Additionally, Levi's® Stadium was named the Environmental Stadium of the Year by the Green Sports Alliance in 2016 and the StadiumBusiness Awards in 2017.

Prior to his role with the 49ers, Guido spent five years as a senior leader at the sports agency Legends, where he was a founding member. During this period, Guido spearheaded major stadium development and sales projects while playing a critical role in the agency's initial international growth. Guido maintained his passion for consulting on transformative projects around the world and in 2018 – fueled by demand in the sports and live event industry for a truly connected, results-driven, and innovative agency – he aligned the interests and ambitions of the 49ers and partners Harris Blitzer Sports & Entertainment, Live Nation | Ticketmaster, and Oak View Group to found Elevate. In 2022, Arctos Sports Partners joined Elevate's roster of equity investors.

Under Guido's leadership, Elevate has quickly become a premier consultancy in global sports and entertainment. In just six years, the firm has built a diverse client roster spanning major leagues and organizations across the NFL, NBA, NHL, MLB, EPL, MLS, NWSL, college athletics, combat sports, motorsports, and beyond. Known for its data-driven and results-oriented approach, Elevate provides innovative solutions across sales, marketing, fan experience, executive talent strategy, and venue development. In 2023, Sports Business Journal recognized Elevate as "Best in Property Consulting, Sales and Client Services." Most recently, the company expanded into the Middle East with the acquisition of RISE Group, adding a new global footprint through offices in Riyadh, Jeddah, Abu Dhabi, and Dubai.

Guido has been recognized by the San Francisco Business Times for demonstrating industry excellence and innovation in his position. In 2018, Guido was named to the "Leaders Under 40" by the Leaders Sports Awards and to SBJ's list of "Power Players: Ticketing." He has also been named 2021 Sports Executive of the Year against an international field by the StadiumBusiness Awards.

Guido's innovation and inspiring management style have earned him a place at the podium at some of the largest industry conferences in the world, delivering keynotes at events including Leaders in Sport, SBJ's World Congress of Sport, the IEG Pivot Conference, the World Football Summit, VenuesNow, and Bloomberg Power Players. Guido's unique perspective on the sports and entertainment ecosystem and use of pioneering sports business technology have made him a recurring guest on Bloomberg, CNBC, FOX Business Network and other global broadcast networks.

In Guido's first NFL role, he led efforts for the Dallas Cowboys' opening of AT&T Stadium, breaking industry records for PSL sales totaling over $600 million. Prior to his record-setting tenure with the Cowboys, Guido served in senior leadership roles with the NHL's Phoenix Coyotes, during which time the club achieved revenue increases for the first time in the franchise's ten-year history, and attained "Top 5" ranking in new business sales across the NHL. He began his career in sports and entertainment with Comcast-Spectacor, then-owner and operator of the NBA's Philadelphia 76ers, NHL's Philadelphia Flyers, AHL's Philadelphia Phantoms, Comcast SportsNet, and the Wachovia Complex.

In 2025, Guido reached a major professional and personal milestone by launching his own family foundation – The Guido Family Foundation – that aims to to close the financial gap for college students aspiring to careers in the sports and entertainment industry. Within its first month, the foundation raised nearly $100,000 in order to make a lasting impact on the lives of future industry leaders.

Guido sits on multiple professional boards, including City Year San Jose/Silicon Valley, the Coach K/Fuqua School of Business, the San Jose State Institute for Study of Sport, Society & Social Change, and the Positive Coaching Alliance. He is also a regular contributor to the Navy Seal Foundation.

He received his bachelor of business administration from the College of New Jersey, where he played wide receiver for the school's football program.

A native of Washington Township, N.J., Guido and his wife, Thea, have three daughters, Estella, Sloane, and Tatum and reside in Los Gatos, CA with their dog Rocky.

JOHN LYNCH

PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS/GENERAL MANAGER

24TH NFL SEASON (15 PLAYING/9 FRONT OFFICE) × 9TH WITH 49ERS

One of the most respected players to ever play the game of football, and a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's Class of 2021, John Lynch is in his ninth season with the 49ers and third as the team's President of Football Operations/General Manager. He spent his first six years (2017-2022) with the organization as the team's General Manager following a 15-year playing career and more than eight seasons as an NFL analyst.

Since coming to San Francisco, Lynch has been vigilant in seeking and acquiring the players that embody the team's culture on the field and in the community. While working hand-in-hand with head coach Kyle Shanahan and the coaching staff, Lynch and his personnel staff continue to add players through all available avenues. Following a 13-3 regular season record and a trip to Super Bowl LIV, Lynch was named the 2019 Executive of the Year by the Pro Football Writers of America after his third season as the team's general manager.

Lynch and the 49ers front office took the necessary steps to secure the future of the team in 2025, signing QB Brock Purdy to a five-year extension, TE George Kittle to a four-year extension and LB Fred Warner to a three-year extension in the offseason. The team also completed an 11-player Draft class during the 2025 NFL Draft, including DL Mykel Williams with the 11th overall selection. The 2024 San Francisco 49ers saw DL Nick Bosa, FB Kyle Juszczyk, TE George Kittle and LB Fred Warner selected to the Pro Bowl, with Warner earning Associated Press First-Team All-Pro and Juszczyk and Kittle earning Second-Team All-Pro honors.

In 2023, the 49ers tallied a 12-5 record, starting the season 5-0 and winning seven of their last nine games. San Francisco won its second-consecutive NFC West title, the number one seed throughout the NFC playoffs, the team's third-consecutive NFC Championship Game and the eighth Super Bowl appearance in franchise history. The 49ers trip to Super Bowl LVIII was their second in five seasons.

Five members of the 2023 San Francisco 49ers were named Associated Press First-Team All-Pro in Juszczyk, Kittle, RB Christian McCaffrey, Warner and T Trent Williams, as well as two Associated Press Second-Team All-Pro selections in WR Brandon Aiyuk and CB Charvarius Ward. Nine 49ers were selected to the 2024 Pro Bowl Games, the most the team had donned since the 2013 Pro Bowl (DL Nick Bosa, DL Javon Hargrave, Juszczyk, Kittle, McCaffrey, QB Brock Purdy, Ward, Warner and Williams). Prior to the start of the regular season, San Francisco signed Bosa to a five-year extension. McCaffrey, who led the NFL in rushing yards in 2023, was named Associated Press Offensive Player of the Year as well as the PFWA Offensive Player of the Year. In his first full season as a starter, Purdy led the NFL in passer rating (113.0) and yards per attempt (9.6), while setting the franchise record for passing yards (4,280) and throwing 31 touchdowns, becoming the first 49ers QB to throw 30-or-more touchdowns in a single season in 22 years.

Lynch and the 2022 49ers finished with a 13-4 regular season record, including wins in each of their last 10 games and a NFC West title. San Francisco earned a berth in the NFC Championship Game following a pair of home playoff game victories over the Seattle Seahawks and Dallas Cowboys. The Niners saw four Associated Press First-Team All-Pro selections in Bosa, S Talanoa Hufanga, Warner and Trent Williams, as well as two AP Second-Team All-Pro selections in Kittle and S George Odum (special teamer), all of whom were acquired by Lynch. Bosa was named Associated Press NFL Defensive Player of the Year after leading the NFL with a career-high 18.5 sacks.

In October of 2022, Lynch and the Niners acquired McCaffrey in a mid-season trade with the Carolina Panthers. McCaffrey went on to register 1,210 scrimmage yards and 11 touchdowns after joining the team in Week 7. San Francisco saw three starting quarterbacks during the season, with rookie QB Brock Purdy, the final overall draft pick in the 2022 NFL Draft, becoming the team's starter in Week 13. Purdy went 7-1 as a starter, including the playoffs, and became the first quarterback in franchise history to win their first five starts and the third rookie quarterback in NFL history to win at least their first five starts.

Lynch and the 49ers, along with the entire NFL, went into the 2021 offseason facing a new challenge with a reduced salary cap. San Francisco navigated the adjustment and retained core players who played vital roles for the team. The team was able to re-sign All-Pro T Trent Williams to a six-year extension and Pro Bowl FB Kyle Juszczyk to a five-year deal, while also re-signing key pieces of their defense in DL D.J. Jones, CB Emmanuel Moseley, S Jaquiski Tartt, CB Jason Verrett and CB K'Waun Williams. Additionally, the team was able to sign All-Pro C Alex Mack, who is a member of 2010's All-Decade Team, along with DL Samson Ebukam.

LYNCH'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- In 2019, Lynch received the Wender Weis Change Maker Award, given annually to a current or former pro athlete who uses their platform to improve the lives of underserved youth.

The 2021 49ers earned a trip to their second NFC Championship in three seasons (2019). The offense featured WR Deebo Samuel, who earned Associated Press First-Team All-Pro honors and the first Pro Bowl selection of his career. In 16 games (15 starts), Samuel registered 77 receptions for 1,405 receiving yards (18.2 average) and five receiving touchdowns to go along with career-highs in carries (59), rushing yards (365) and rushing touchdowns (eight). His eight rushing touchdowns were the most by any player whose primary position is wide receiver since the merger. Second-year WR Brandon Aiyuk also added 56 catches for 826 yards and five touchdowns. On the ground, rookie RB Elijah Mitchell set the franchise record for most rushing yards by a rookie (963).

In 2020, San Francisco signed TE George Kittle to a five-year extension and re-signed a pair of key pieces of their defense in DL Arik Armstead and DB Jimmie Ward. Lynch and his staff then addressed the departures of key veterans, with the selection of WR Brandon Aiyuk and the acquisition of All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection, Trent Williams, in a draft-day trade with Washington. That season, Lynch and the 49ers leadership steered their way through the COVID-19 pandemic, a situation that included the relocation of the team's football operations to Arizona for the final month of the season.

Following the 2018 season, Lynch continued to improve the 49ers roster through trades, free agency and the 2019 NFL Draft. The offseason started with the 49ers acquiring DL Dee Ford via trade and signing him to a five-year contract followed by the signing of free agent LB Kwon Alexander. The 49ers added eight players to the roster during the 2019 NFL Draft, including DL Nick Bosa with the second overall selection, who went on to be named the 2019 AP NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. Lynch continued to add to the roster during the season as the 49ers acquired WR Emmanuel Sanders via trade, a move that proved integral to the team winning the NFC Championship.

In 2018, Lynch bolstered the 49ers offensive line with the additions of C Weston Richburg through free agency and T Mike McGlinchey in the first round of the 2018 NFL Draft. Richburg went on to start 15 games at center while McGlinchey started all 16 games at right tackle and earned All-Rookie Team honors from the Pro Football Writers of America and ESPN. San Francisco also selected LB Fred Warner in the third round of that year's draft. Warner would later become a multiple Associated Press First-Team All-Pro selection and earn his first trip to the Pro Bowl following the 2020 season. The team also added free agent CB Richard Sherman who went on to earn his fifth Associated Press All-Pro selection in 2019 with the 49ers.

In his first season with San Francisco, Lynch brought in several key players through free agency, including K Robbie Gould and Juszczyk, who impacted the team immediately. Gould led the NFL with a career-high 39 made field goals and a career-high 145 points and Juszczyk was selected to the Pro Bowl. That year's NFL Draft saw San Francisco select TE George Kittle in the fifth round, as Kittle has since earned First-Team All-Pro honors (2019), been selected to two Pro Bowls (2019-20) and set the then-NFL record for the most receiving yards by a tight end at the time with 1,377 in 2018.

Lynch was also responsible for acquiring G Laken Tomlinson and QB Jimmy Garoppolo in trades. Tomlinson was acquired on August 31, 2017 and started the final 15 games of the season at left guard. He was rewarded with a three-year contract extension through the 2021 season on June 22, 2018. Garoppolo, who was traded to San Francisco on October 30, 2017, started the final five games of the season and posted a 5-0 record while setting the franchise record for most passing yards in the first five starts with the team (1,542 yards). On February 8, 2018, Garoppolo signed a five-year contract extension through the 2022 season and led the team to a 38-17 career record in the regular season (4-2 in the postseason) as the 49ers starting quarterback.

Lynch joined the 49ers in February of 2017 after serving as a color analyst for FOX Sports from 2009-16. In his final season of 2016 with FOX, he manned the number two broadcast crew alongside play-by-play announcer Kevin Burkhardt.

Prior to his time at FOX, Lynch constructed one of the all-time great NFL careers while with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1993-2003) and the Denver Broncos (2004-07). A four-time All-Pro and nine-time Pro Bowl selection, he played in 224 games (191 starts) and registered 1,277 tackles, 13.0 sacks, 26 interceptions, 16 forced fumbles, eight fumble recoveries and 100 passes defensed. Lynch also started all 12 playoff games in which he appeared and tallied 71 tackles, two interceptions and 12 passes defensed. He was a Buccaneers team captain as the squad achieved the crown jewel of team sports, a victory in Super Bowl XXXVII, and has been inducted into the Ring of Honor in both Tampa Bay and Denver.

Lynch attended Stanford University where he excelled in both football and baseball. On the football field, he earned Second-Team All-American and First-Team All-Pac-10 Conference honors as a senior, while playing for Hall of Fame head coach Bill Walsh. Lynch was later selected in the third round (82nd overall) of the 1993 NFL Draft by Tampa Bay. Following his career on the diamond for the Cardinal, he was selected in the second round (66th overall) of the 1992 Major League Baseball Draft by the Florida Marlins.

In addition to his stellar play on the field, Lynch is also a pillar of the community. He and his wife, Linda, formed the John Lynch Foundation, which is committed to inspiring young people to become leaders through scholarship, sport participation and community involvement. The Foundation is committed to developing leaders by encouraging dreams, providing programs that assist and motivate, and recognizing achievement and excellence.

Lynch was the recipient of the 2006 Bart Starr Award, which is voted upon by players throughout the NFL and recognizes a player who shows outstanding character and leadership in the home, on the field and in the community. He was also presented with The Byron "Whizzer" White Award, which is given annually to the NFL player who serves his team, community and country in the spirit of Bryon Raymond White. In 2019, Lynch received the prestigious Wender Weis Change Maker Award, which is given annually to a current or former professional athlete who has used their sports platform to improve the lives of underserved youth. Additionally, Lynch was the 2019 recipient of the Excellence in Leadership Award from the Positive Coaching Alliance, the Ireland Funds 2020 Distinguished Leadership Award recipient and the 2021 Quincy Jones Exceptional Advocacy Award recipient.

With a longstanding appreciation for the United States military stemming from his grandfather and great uncle both volunteering for the Army the day after the deadly attacks on Pearl Harbor in December 1941, Lynch has twice (2017 & 2020) been the 49ers nominee for the Annual Salute to Service Award presented by USAA, including his selection as one of three finalists for the Award in 2020.

John and his wife, Linda, have four children – Jake, Lindsay, Lilly and Leah.

PARAAG MARATHE

PRESIDENT, 49ERS ENTERPRISES & EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Paraag Marathe is in his 25th year with the 49ers, currently serving as both President, 49ers Enterprises, and Executive Vice President, Football Operations.

On the football side, Marathe continues in his long-respected role as the team's chief contract negotiator among other football duties. He works alongside General Manager John Lynch and Head Coach Kyle Shanahan on all aspects of the club's football operations. Marathe also co-chairs the NFL's Future of Football Committee.

Marathe has played an integral role in building and maintaining the 49ers current roster, most recently negotiating contract extensions with core players QB Brock Purdy, TE George Kittle, LB Fred Warner, and FB Kyle Juszczyk. He has also helped bring several standout players to the franchise via trades, including RB Christian McCaffrey and T Trent Williams. Over the years, Marathe has consistently kept the club in a competitive salary cap position.

While serving as 49ers team president from 2014-16 and chief operating officer from 2010-13, Marathe oversaw the development of Levi's Stadium and helped bring to life the vision of an unparalleled fan experience at the venue. Using the Bay Area as inspiration, the club focused on bringing technology, sustainability, and culture to the stadium experience. His leadership was critical during the club's transition from Candlestick Park to Levi's Stadium, as he set the vision and hired many of the current executive team members. He also played a critical role on the small team that founded and incubated VenueNext, a technology company that is setting new standards for the live event experience.

Marathe also serves as President of 49ers Enterprises, where he leads the group's strategic investments in sporting properties across the world. Marathe holds executive positions with Leeds United in the English Premier League and Rangers Football Club in the Scottish Professional Football League. At Leeds United, he serves as Chairman, overseeing the Club's leadership team and their management of all sporting and commercial operations. In his first two seasons as Chairman, the Club earned a record number of points in both seasons, the EFL Championship Trophy, and promotion back to the Premier League. Before 49ers Enterprises acquired full ownership of Leeds in 2023, Marathe served as the Club's Vice Chairman for over two years and as a member of the Board for over five. He also led the effort to secure and announce a landmark partnership deal with Red Bull, bringing in new commercial revenues as well as additional capital investment.

In Glasgow, Marathe serves as Vice Chairman of Rangers Football Club. He was a driving force in the 2025 majority share acquisition that introduced new ownership and a new era for the historic Scottish club. Under his commercial and sporting leadership, the Club will look to chart a new competitive path.

Marathe is also deeply committed to uplifting the UK community through sport. Marathe serves on the board of the NFL UK Foundation, the charitable arm of the NFL within the UK, where he is spearheading a new collaborative initiative between the NFL UK Foundation, 49ers, and Leeds United that addresses barriers to sport, education, and opportunity for marginalized youth. In its first year, the program impacted over 1,200 underserved youth.

Another sport Marathe has deep roots in is cricket. He has been a catalyst for the sport's growth in the United States, having previously served as the Chairman of USA Cricket from 2018-2023. During that time, he ensured USA Cricket earned recognition by the International Cricket Council (ICC) as the organization's 105th member. He also led the launch of Major League Cricket (MLC), an American T20 league that held its inaugural season in 2023. Bringing America's passion for cricket to a global stage, Marathe led the effort to name the United States a host nation for the 2024 Men's T20 Cricket World Cup and to bring cricket to the 2028 Summer Olympic Games in Los Angeles.

In recognition of his industry-leading reputation, in 2015 Marathe was selected as a member of the Sports Business Journal's Forty Under 40 class. Marathe is also a two-time recipient (2012 & 2019) of the Fritz Pollard Alliance's Johnnie L. Cochran Salute to Excellence Award, which honors individuals and organizations who display outstanding performances on the field, in the front office, and across the United States by exemplifying diversity, courage, and meritorious performance.

Outside of sports, Marathe is actively involved with organizations and causes that are personally important to him. He currently sits on the Board of Directors for The Body Positive and Project HEAL - nonprofits that are focused on bringing awareness and funding for fighting eating disorders. He is currently serving as board chairman of the Sequoia Hospital Foundation, where both of his daughters were born. Marathe is a faculty member at Stanford's Graduate School of Business, where for the past decade he has been a Lecturer in Management and co-teaches an MBA course on Negotiation Dynamics in Sports, Entertainment and Media.

A native of Saratoga, CA, Marathe's passion for the 49ers was instilled at a very young age, as he has rarely missed any 49ers games since he was six years old. Marathe's Bay Area roots run deep, having received his bachelor's degree with high honors from the Haas School of Business at the University of California-Berkeley and his MBA from Stanford University's Graduate School of Business.

Marathe, his wife, Jennifer, and two daughters, Juniper and Maren, live in Los Altos, CA.

RJ GILLEN

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

RJ Gillen is in his 11th season with the 49ers and first as assistant general manager. He spent the previous season (2024) as the director of player personnel after three seasons (2021-23) as the director of pro personnel and five seasons as a pro personnel scout. He joined the 49ers as an assistant in the scouting department from 2015-16.

In his role, Gillen is responsible for supervising the player personnel department, including the college and pro scouting departments, and managing the team's daily personnel operations. He works closely with General Manager John Lynch and Head Coach Kyle Shanahan, providing input on roster construction and personnel decisions and forming the club's overall scouting philosophies and team building strategies. Gillen plays a key role in preparing the team for player acquisitions year-round through his evaluations of pro and college talent, as well as his direction to the development of the pro free agency and college draft boards.

Additionally, Gillen works closely with the coaching staff and various other departments to establish consistency in the scouting process and alignment throughout the organization. He collaborates with the football administration staff on contract negotiations, market analysis, and roster management strategies and works in conjunction with the R&D department to develop creative approaches to optimize and improve efficiency in decision-making and apply data for team and scheme-specific evaluations.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Gillen gained front office experience in the NBA with the San Antonio Spurs where he assisted the team in preparation for the NBA draft and free agency. Gillen began his career working in sports at Shapiro Negotiations Institute in Baltimore, MD, where he assisted in consulting and deal coaching for NBA, NFL, and MLB front offices.

Through his varied academic and professional experiences, Gillen has gained unique knowledge and perspective on the intersection of sports, law, and strategy, which he applies to continually improve processes and seek competitive advantages in personnel evaluations, roster management, player acquisition, and contract negotiations.

A native of Memphis, TN, Gillen graduated from Marquette University School of Law with a focus on sports law in May of 2014. He is a member of the Texas Bar and Wisconsin Bar. Gillen earned his bachelor of science in sports administration and leadership from Louisiana State University where he was a member of the LSU football team from 2007-10 and won a BCS National Championship in 2007. He and his wife, Natalie, have two daughters, Grace and Gigi, and a son, Graham.

BRIAN HAMPTON

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

22ND NFL SEASON × 22ND WITH 49ERS

Brian Hampton is in his 22nd season with the San Francisco 49ers and first as assistant general manager. Prior to his promotion, Hampton spent the previous five seasons (2020-24) as vice president, football administration after 10 seasons (2010-19) as the director of football administration & analytics. Hampton also served as the team's manager of football operations for two seasons and as an analyst before that. He originally joined the 49ers as a football operations intern in late 2003.

Hampton is primarily responsible for roster construction strategy, leading contract negotiations, strategic planning, and management of the organization's player compensation and salary cap. His extensive knowledge of the salary cap has enabled the 49ers to remain competitive year after year, creatively navigating the CBA to both retain and add core players, maximizing the cumulative talent and depth on the roster.

In his role, Hampton works closely with General Manager John Lynch and Head Coach Kyle Shanahan, providing senior leadership and support to the entire football operation. His additional daily football operations duties include overseeing the budgets for all football departments, directly managing the budgets for player compensation, coaching, scouting, executives and football administration. He is also the primary liaison to the NFL Management Council. Hampton built the club's football Research & Development program, finding and developing new ways to gain advantages in both scouting decision making and game-management strategy.

Hampton was a member of the committee that led the 2017 search for the team's General Manager and Head Coach, which resulted in the hiring of Lynch and Shanahan. More recently, he has helped prepare others to become General Managers within the National Football League, by providing guidance and development to associates who ultimately were hired into such roles in Minnesota, Tennessee and Washington. Hampton has also developed and mentored numerous colleagues and interns that have grown into a variety of lead positions across many teams. Hampton, along with a number of individuals that have worked for him, were recognized from a 2024 NFL-wide survey of the "analytics person most likely to become a general manager."

Since Hampton was promoted into a management role, the 49ers have reached the NFC Championship game seven times and advanced to three Super Bowls in 15 seasons. While Hampton served in the booth on the coaches headset during games to provide strategic advice and guide challenge decisions, the 49ers posted a 72-40-1 record and reached the Conference Championship in four of the five seasons, which excludes 2020 where social distancing rules limited the number of people in the booth.

Throughout his tenure, Hampton has played a critical role in the acquisition and retention of key talent that has propelled the 49ers to consistent success. He has been instrumental in crafting the complex contracts that have allowed the team to secure their high-level players, having led contract negotiations for the team with their draft picks, free agents and extensions. The extensive list of Pro Bowl selections Hampton and the 49ers have signed include at least one player at every position on offense and defense as well as punter and kicker. Hampton's contributions as an expert at navigating the compensatory draft pick allocation process as well as identifying trade opportunities provide the 49ers the ability to accumulate draft picks to select elite players and core contributors throughout each round.

Born and raised in Oakley, CA, Hampton earned a M.A. in sport management from the University of San Francisco and a B.A. in business economics from UC-Santa Barbara. Hampton worked for the Santa Barbara Foresters Baseball Club and the UCSB athletic department. Hampton also spent two years directing the UCSB sports fan club and also was elected and served as President of the Associated Students for one year.

Hampton resides in Mountain View, CA, with his wife and children. He is an avid triathlete having completed a number of events, including marathons and Ironman triathlons. He has been recognized by Ironman three times as an All-World Athlete for his performance in annual age group rankings.

ETHAN WAUGH

PERSONNEL EXECUTIVE

22ND NFL SEASON × 19TH WITH 49ERS

Ethan Waugh is in his 19th year with the 49ers and first as personnel executive. He rejoins San Francisco after most recently serving as the team's vice president of player personnel in 2021.

Prior to rejoining the 49ers, Waugh served as the Jacksonville Jaguars assistant general manager for three seasons (2022-24) where he helped oversee all aspects of the player personnel department and team construction through contract negotiations, daily roster moves, free agency, the draft process and coaching hires.

Waugh spent 18 seasons (2004-21) in various roles in San Francisco's personnel department before Jacksonville. He spent one season (2021) as vice president of player personnel, overseeing the daily operations of the college and pro scouting staff. In addition, Waugh served as director of college scouting and football systems for three seasons (2018-20) and a senior player personnel coordinator for three seasons (2015-17). He also spent three seasons (2012-14) as the team's senior personnel assistant. Waugh began his NFL career as scout, serving four seasons (2008-11) as the team's Midwest regional scout after joining the team as a personnel assistant (2004-08).

Prior to being promoted to an area scout in 2008, Waugh served as the team's personnel assistant where he was involved in a variety of areas, including the evaluation and scouting of college and professional players and working extensively with the 49ers scouting database.

Waugh originally joined the 49ers after spending two seasons at Illinois Wesleyan University, where he served as the offensive coordinator, quarterbacks coach and recruiting coordinator. Prior to his time at Illinois Wesleyan, Waugh served as an assistant at Western Carolina University (1997-2001). Waugh graduated from Lawrence University in 1997 with a bachelor's degree in history and later earned his master's degree in American history from Western Carolina University in 1999.

Prior to his time at Illinois Wesleyan, Waugh served as an assistant at Western Carolina University from 1997-2001. While with the Catamounts, he coached on both the offensive and defensive sides of the ball and assisted with special teams.

Waugh grew up in Vernon Hills, IL, and played defensive back for two years at Lake Forest College before transferring to Lawrence University where he played the slot and quarterback positions. He is a 1997 graduate of Lawrence with a bachelor's degree in history and earned a master's degree in American History from Western Carolina in 1999.

Waugh hails from a football family. His father, Maury, recently retired after coaching for over 50 years. Waugh's brother, Tucker, is the executive director of player personnel at Army West Point, and another brother, Adam, is the head coach at Southeastern University in Lakeland, FL.

He and his wife, Allison, reside in Spartanburg, SC with their four sons.

KEENA TURNER

VICE PRESIDENT & SENIOR ADVISOR TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

40TH NFL SEASON (11 PLAYING/29 FRONT OFFICE) × 25TH WITH 49ERS

Keena Turner is in his 29th season in the front office of the 49ers and his eighth as vice president & senior advisor to the general manager.

For more than three decades, Turner has been a part of the 49ers as both a player and member of the team's front office. He has spent the previous 10 seasons (2008-17) as the vice president of football affairs. Turner has held several roles throughout his career including director of alumni coordinators (2006-07), an alumni coordinator (2004-05) and player development director (2001-03). He also worked in the player relations department (1998-2001) and the player and community relations department (1991).

Prior to joining the 49ers, Turner spent three seasons (1992-94) as the linebackers coach at Stanford University under head coach Bill Walsh. Upon leaving Stanford, Turner embarked on his radio and television career, while also working in community relations for DeBartolo Entertainment. He went on to serve as a color analyst for 49ers preseason games for 15 years (1995-2009) and was a co-host for the 49ers Preview Show. He also was the radio/TV color analyst for the San Jose SaberCats (IFL) for 15 seasons.

Originally selected in the second round (39th overall) in the 1980 NFL Draft by San Francisco, Turner played in 153 games (118 starts) with the 49ers over 11 seasons (1980-90). A member of the 49ers 10-year Club, Turner was selected to the Pro Bowl in 1985 and is a four-time Super Bowl champion (XVI, XIX, XXIII and XXIV).

Following his playing career, Turner was inducted into the Purdue University Intercollegiate Hall of Fame in 2011 and the Jewish Sports Hall of Fame Northern California in 2012. In 2019, he was also inducted into the Bay Area Sports Hall of Fame.

Turner's dedication to excellence has not been limited to the playing field. He has been a constant supporter of Family House in San Francisco for over 30 years and he created, implemented and judged a student essay contest for the Tracy Middle School system emphasizing the importance of academics. TARIQ AHMAD

VICE PRESIDENT, PLAYER PERSONNEL

Tariq Ahmad is in his first season as vice president, player personnel after serving two seasons as director of player personnel (2023-24) and the previous three seasons (2021-23) as director of college scouting. He previously served as the team's assistant director of college scouting during the 2020 season after five seasons (2015-19) as an area scout. Ahmad originally joined the team as an assistant in the 49ers scouting department in 2014.

Ahmad joined the team following four seasons as director of football recruiting operations at Rutgers University and seven seasons overall as a member of the Scarlet Knights program. During his time at Rutgers, Ahmad received his master's degree in education administration.

Ahmad previously served as an offensive graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, Ithaca College, working with the running backs on game strategies and techniques. Prior to becoming a coach, he was a three-sport athlete for the Bombers, participating in football, basketball and outdoor track at his alma mater. In 2017, Ahmad was inducted into the Ithaca College Athletic Hall of Fame. A native of Holmdel, NJ, he graduated from Ithaca College in 2005, with a degree in health and physical education.

Ahmad and his wife, Shavon, have two boys, T.J. and Zafar, and two daughters, Nasreen and Siobhan.

Matt Ploenzke is in his sixth season with the 49ers and his first as vice president, football research & development. In his role, Ploenzke oversees the research strategies for the department and advises on the methodological approaches undertaken. His primary responsibilities involve developing player valuation metrics using advanced statistical techniques and providing interpretations of these metrics to aid in roster acquisitions. Ploenzke joined the 49ers as a football data scientist in 2020 and spent two seasons (2020-21) in that role before being elevated to manager, football R&D in 2022 and director, football R&D in 2023.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Ploenzke was head research analyst for the Federal Reserve Bank of New York (2013-15) where he conducted econometric research and helped manage other departmental responsibilities. He also spent time working in the Office of Institutional Research at the University of Minnesota, Duluth (2010-13).

A native of Apple Valley, MN, Ploenzke completed his Ph.D. in biostatistics from Harvard University in 2020. He earned bachelor's degrees in statistics and economics from the University of Minnesota, Duluth, in 2012.

KYLE SHANAHAN

HEAD COACH

Kyle Shanahan was named the 20th head coach of the San Francisco 49ers on February 6, 2017. Shanahan signed a multi-year contract extension with the 49ers in September of 2023.

The 2024 San Francisco 49ers saw DL Nick Bosa, FB Kyle Juszczyk, TE George Kittle and LB Fred Warner selected to the Pro Bowl, with Warner earning Associated Press First-Team All-Pro and Juszczyk and Kittle earning Second-Team All-Pro honors. Shanahan again led a top offense in 2024 by directing a unit that finished in the top five in the NFL in yards per game (376.3 - fourth) for the fifth time in his tenure with the 49ers. San Francisco's offense was led by the receiving duo of WR Jauan Jennings and Kittle. Jennings finished the season with career highs in receptions (77), receiving yards (975) and receiving touchdowns (six), while Kittle led the team in receptions (78), receiving yards (1,106) and receiving touchdowns (eight). Kittle's 1,106 receiving yards marked his second-consecutive and fourth overall season with 1,000-or-more receiving yards, marking the third-most seasons in franchise history with at least 1,000 receiving yards and making him one of five tight ends in NFL history to register four such seasons in a career.

QB Brock Purdy finished the 2024 season completing 300 of his 455 passing attempts (65.9%) for 3,864 yards and 20 touchdowns with a passer rating of 96.1. The 49ers rushing attack was led by RB Jordan Mason, who registered a career-high 789 rushing yards and added three touchdowns. Rookie RB Isaac Guerendo added 84 carries for 420 yards and four touchdowns in his debut season.

The 49ers defense wrapped up the 2024 season with the fifth-ranked passing defense (192.8) and eighth-ranked total defense (317.4) in the NFL. Warner anchored the defensive unit, leading the team in tackles (131) and forced fumbles (four). He also added 1.0 sack and two interceptions, one of which was returned for a touchdown. Warner became one of three players in the NFL to register 130-or-more tackles in each of the previous four seasons (2021-24) and also became the second linebacker in franchise history to register 10.0-or-more sacks and 10-or-more interceptions in a career. Bosa led the defensive line with 52 tackles, 9.0 sacks, one interception, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery, while the secondary was led by DB Deommodore Lenoir, who shared the team-lead in interceptions (two) and notched 85 tackles, nine passes defensed and one forced fumble. Rookie CB Renardo Green registered 60 tackles, one interception, one forced fumble and a team-high 13 passes defensed, the most by a 49ers rookie since at least 2000.

The 2023 San Francisco 49ers finished the season with a 12-5 record, starting the season 5-0 and winning seven of their last nine games. Shanahan led his team to its second-consecutive NFC West title, the number one seed throughout the NFC playoffs, third-consecutive NFC Championship Game and the eighth Super Bowl appearance in franchise history.

The 2023 49ers featured five Associated Press First-Team All-Pro selections in Juszczyk, Kittle, RB Christian McCaffrey, Warner and T Trent Williams, as well as two AP Second-Team All-Pro selections in WR Brandon Aiyuk and CB Charvarius Ward. A NFL-high nine 49ers were selected to the 2024 Pro Bowl Games, the most by the team since the 2013 Pro Bowl (DL Nick Bosa, DL Javon Hargrave, Juszczyk, Kittle, McCaffrey, QB Brock Purdy, Ward, Warner and Williams). McCaffrey, who led the NFL in rushing yards in 2023, was named Associated Press Offensive Player of the Year as well as the PFWA Offensive Player of the Year.

The 49ers boasted one of the most potent offenses in the NFL in 2023, finishing with top-five marks in total offense (398.4), scoring offense (28.9), rushing yards per game (140.5) and passing yards per game (257.9). The 49ers offense registered 491 total points and 6,773 total yards in 2023, both of which were the second-highest single-season marks in franchise history. In his first full season as a starter, Purdy led the NFL in passer rating (113.0) and yards per attempt (9.6), while setting the franchise record for passing yards (4,280) and throwing 31 touchdowns, becoming the first 49ers QB to throw 30-or-more touchdowns in a single season in 22 years. McCaffrey led the NFL in rushing yards (1,459), yards from scrimmage (2,023) and finished tied for the most total touchdowns (21). He became the first player since 1995 to lead the NFL in rushing yards after every week of an entire season. Aiyuk (1,342 receiving yards) registered his second-consecutive 1,000-yard season and added seven touchdown receptions. He and Kittle (1,020 receiving yards) became the first 49ers duo to register 1,000-or-more receiving yards in the same season since 1998. WR Deebo Samuel added 1,117 yards from scrimmage and 12 total touchdowns. In McCaffrey (2,023 yards from scrimmage), Aiyuk (1,342 yards from scrimmage), Samuel (1,117 yards from scrimmage) and Kittle (1,022 yards from scrimmage), the 49ers became the first team in NFL history to have a running back, two wide receivers and a tight end each post 1,000-or-more yards from scrimmage in a single season.

The 49ers defense finished in the top-10 in the NFL in total defense (303.9) and rushing defense (89.7), tied for first in interceptions (22) and tied for the seventh-most sacks (48). San Francisco's defensive line was anchored by Bosa (10.5 sacks), Hargrave (7.0 sacks) and Walter Payton Man of the Year nominee DL Arik Armstead (5.0 sacks). Warner led the linebacker unit with a team-high 132 tackles, 2.5 sacks, four interceptions, 11 passes defensed and four forced fumbles, marking his sixth-consecutive season with over 115

SHANAHAN'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- During his time as head coach of the 49ers, San Francisco has four postseason appearances, won three NFC West Division titles (2019 & 2022-23), advanced to four NFC Championship Games (2019 & 2021-23) and two Super Bowls (LIV & LVIII).
- In 2019, Shanahan was named Coach of the Year by Sporting News and NFC Coach of the Year by the Committee of 101.
- Shanahan led the 49ers to a nine-win improvement from 2018 to 2019 which was the largest win improvement from one season to the next in franchise history.
- Shanahan was named Assistant Coach of the Year by the Associated Press, Coordinator of Year by Sporting News and Assistant Coach of the Year by the Pro Football Writers of America in 2016.
- Shanahan was 26 years old when he was named the wide receivers coach of the Houston Texans, becoming the youngest position coach in the NFL at that time. At 28 years old, he was named the offensive coordinator of the Texans and was the youngest coordinator in the NFL.

tackles. Ward led the secondary with 72 tackles, a NFL-high 23 passes defensed and a team-high five interceptions, one of which was returned for a touchdown (Week 15 at Arz.).

Shanahan and the 2022 49ers finished with a 13-4 regular season record, including wins in each of their last 10 games and a NFC West title. San Francisco earned a berth in the NFC Championship Game following a pair of home playoff game victories over the Seattle Seahawks and Dallas Cowboys. The Niners saw four AP First-Team All-Pro selections in Bosa, S Talanoa Hufanga, LB Fred Warner and T Trent Williams, as well as two AP Second-Team All-Pro selections in TE George Kittle and S George Odum (special teamer). Bosa was named Associated Press NFL Defensive Player of the Year after leading the NFL with a career-high 18.5 sacks.

The offense was led in 2022 by WR Brandon Aiyuk and RB Christian McCaffrey, who was acquired in a mid-season trade. Aiyuk registered 1,015 receiving yards and eight touchdowns, giving him the first 1,000-yard season of his career. McCaffrey registered 1,210 scrimmage yards and 11 touchdowns after joining the team in Week 7. San Francisco saw three starting quarterbacks during the season, with rookie QB Brock Purdy becoming the team's starter in Week 13. The 49ers offense remained explosive, as the team ranked fifth in the NFL in yards per game (365.6) and averaged 5.9 yards per play, the fourth-highest mark in the league. Purdy went 7-1 as a starter, including the playoffs, and became the first quarterback in franchise history to win their first five starts and the third rookie quarterback in NFL history to win at least their first five starts.

In 2021, Shanahan led the 49ers to their second trip to the NFC Championship in three seasons (2019). The offense featured WR Deebo Samuel, who earned Associated Press First-Team All-Pro honors and the first Pro Bowl selection of his career. In 16 games (15 starts), Samuel registered 77 receptions for 1,405 receiving yards (18.2 average) and five receiving touchdowns to go along with career-highs in carries (59), rushing yards (365) and rushing touchdowns (eight). His eight rushing touchdowns were the most by any player whose primary position is wide receiver since the merger. Second-year WR Brandon Aiyuk also added 56 catches for 826 yards and five touchdowns. On the ground, rookie RB Elijah Mitchell set the franchise record for most rushing yards by a rookie (963).

The 2021 49ers offensive line saw three of five members earn Pro Bowl honors in T Trent Williams, G Laken Tomlinson and C Alex Mack. Williams was selected to the Associated Press 2021 First-Team All-Pro list for the first time in his career. San Francisco's offense finished the season averaging 127.4 rushing yards, ranking seventh in the NFL. TE George Kittle ranked second on the team with 71 receptions for 910 yards and six touchdowns while earning a trip to the Pro Bowl.

The 49ers defense ranked third in the NFL in 2021, allowing 310.0 total yards per game. San Francisco also was sixth in the NFL, surrendering 206.5 passing yards per game. San Francisco saw eight different players record an interception on the season, as CB Emmanuel Moseley finished with a career-high 11 passes defensed and one interception. The Niners forced 22 fumbles on defense in 2021, the most in the NFL and the most in a single season by the 49ers since 1994. Bosa finished the season leading the team with a career-high 15.5 sacks. His sack total ranked fourth in the NFL among all players as he was selected to the Pro Bowl. DL Arden Key also registered a career-high 6.5 sacks on the year.

The 2020 San Francisco 49ers were led by AP First-Team All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection LB Fred Warner, who registered a team-high 125 tackles to go along with 1.0 sack, two interceptions, two fumble recoveries, one forced fumble and six passes defensed. San Francisco had two additional players selected to the Pro Bowl in FB Kyle Juszczyk, who set career highs in carries (17), rushing yards (64) and rushing touchdowns (two) while adding 19 receptions for 202 yards and tied his career high with four receiving touchdowns, and T Trent Williams, who started all 14 games in which he appeared after the team acquired him in a trade with The Washington Football Team in the offseason.

San Francisco's offense also featured rookie WR Brandon Aiyuk, who led the team with 60 receptions for 748 yards and five touchdowns to go along with six carries for 77 yards and two touchdowns on the ground. Aiyuk became the first rookie to lead the team in receptions and receiving yards since WR Gene Washington in 1969. His 60 receptions were the second-most by a rookie in franchise history and his 748 receiving yards were the third-most by a rookie in franchise history. WR Kendrick Bourne set career highs in receptions (49) and receiving yards (667), while TE George Kittle added 48 receptions for 634 yards and two touchdowns. RB Jeff Wilson Jr. led the team with career highs in rushing attempts (126), rushing yards (600) and rushing touchdowns (seven), while also adding 13 receptions for 133 yards and three touchdowns. RB Raheem Mostert also notched 104 carries for 521 yards and two touchdowns on the season.

The 49ers defense allowed 314.4 yards per game, ranking fifth in the NFL, while allowing just 207.9 passing yards per game, which ranked fourth in the league. On the ground, the defense allowed 12 rushing touchdowns on the season, which was tied for the fourth-fewest in the NFL. San Francisco's defense also ranked fourth in the NFL in 3rd-down defense (35.5 percent allowed) and three-and-out drives forced (41).

Along with Warner, the 49ers defense featured DL Kerry Hyder Jr., who led the team with a career-high 8.5 sacks while also adding 49 tackles, 10 tackles for loss and one fumble recovery. Rookie DT Javon Kinlaw tallied 33 tackles, 1.5 sacks, three tackles for loss, one interception (returned for a touchdown) and four passes defensed. LB Dre Greenlaw notched 83 tackles, seven tackles for loss, 1.0 sack and one pass defensed. The secondary was led by DB Jimmie Ward, who registered 71 tackles, two forced fumbles and four passes defensed, and CB Jason Verrett, who tallied 60 tackles, two tackles for loss, two interceptions and seven passes defensed.

In 2019, he was named Coach of the Year by Sporting News and NFC Coach of the Year by the Committee of 101 after leading the 49ers to a 13-3 regular season record, the NFC West Division Title and an appearance in Super Bowl LIV. San Francisco's nine-win improvement from 2018 to 2019 was the largest win improvement from one season to the next in franchise history. The 49ers became one of three teams since the NFL switched to a 12-team playoff format in 1990 to finish 4-12 or worse one season followed by earning the number one seed in its conference the next season (1999 St. Louis Rams & 2016 Dallas Cowboys).

San Francisco's offense in 2019 ranked first in the NFL in rushing touchdowns (23), second in points per game (29.9) and rushing yards per game (144.1) and fourth in total offense (381.1 yards per game). The 49ers finished the regular season with 479 total points, tied for the second-most in franchise history and the most since 1994 (505). San Francisco also had 13 different players with at least one touchdown reception on the season, which tied the NFL record for the most players with a touchdown reception in a single season.

QB Jimmy Garoppolo completed 329 of 476 attempts (69.1 percent) for 3,978 yards and 27 touchdowns with a passer rating of 102.0, earning Comeback Player of the Year honors from Sporting News. His 69.1 completion percentage in 2019 ranked tied for fourth in the NFL (min. 200 attempts) and his 27 passing touchdowns ranked tied for fifth. TE George Kittle's game continued to improve as he was named Associated Press First-Team All-Pro, PFWA All-NFL and All-NFC and was selected as a starter in the Pro Bowl. Kittle led the team with 85 receptions for 1,053 yards and five touchdowns. He became just the fifth player in franchise history, and the first tight end, to have multiple 1,000-yard seasons, joining WR Jerry Rice (12), WR Terrell Owens (5), WR Anquan Boldin (2) and WR John Taylor (2). Rookie WR Deebo Samuel registered 57 receptions for 802 yards and three touchdowns while also adding 14 carries for 159 yards (11.4 average) and three touchdowns. His 57 receptions and 802 receiving yards each ranked second among all rookies in franchise history. The 49ers ground attack featured three players with 500-or-more rushing yards in a single season (RB Raheem Mostert – 772; RB Matt Breida – 623; RB Tevin Coleman – 544) for just the second time in franchise history (1954 - three players).

On the defensive side of the ball, the 49ers ranked second in the NFL in total yards allowed per game (281.8), the fewest total yards allowed per game by the team since 1997 (250.8). San Francisco ranked first in the NFL in passing yards allowed per game (169.2), the fewest passing yards allowed per game in the NFL since 2009 (NYJ - 153.7). It marked the first time San Francisco led the NFL in passing yards allowed per game since 1987 (165.6). The 49ers ranked tied for second in the NFL in third-down percentage allowed (33.3) and tied for fifth in the NFL in sacks (48.0), the most by the team in a single season since 1998 (51.0). San Francisco also ranked seventh in both opponent completion percentage (61.3) and opponent quarterback rating (83.0).

As a rookie, Bosa, who played in all 16 games (14 starts) and registered 47 tackles, 9.0 sacks, one interception, one forced fumble, two fumble recoveries and two passes defensed, was named Defensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press and the PFWA, and Rookie of the Year by Sporting News, PFWA and Pepsi. He was also named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team and was named a starter in the Pro Bowl. With DLs Arik Armstead (10.0), Bosa (9.0), DeForest Buckner (7.5) and Dee Ford (6.5), the 49ers were the only team in the NFL to have four-or-more players with 6.5-or-more sacks in 2019. LB Fred Warner started all 16 games and led the team with 118 tackles, while also adding 3.0 sacks, one interception (returned for a touchdown), three forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and nine passes defensed. Rookie LB Dre Greenlaw played in all 16 games (10 starts) and tallied 87 tackles, 1.0 sack, one interception and two passes defensed as he was named to the PFWA All-Rookie team. The secondary was led by CB Richard Sherman, who registered 57 tackles, three interceptions (one returned for a touchdown) and 11 passes defensed and was named Associated Press Second-Team All-Pro.

During his second season at the helm of the 49ers, the 2018 team overcame adversity early in the season after top free agent acquisition RB Jerick McKinnon tore his ACL prior to Week 1, as did starting QB Jimmy Garoppolo in Week 3, putting an end to both of their seasons. Despite the setback, Shanahan, his coaches and the young core of the team stepped up to the challenge and endured the ups and downs of the season. Second-year TE George Kittle set an NFL record for most receiving yards by a tight end in a single season (1,377) while recording the most yards after catch by any player in the NFL since 2010 (870). Kittle earned AP Second-Team All-Pro honors, as well as his first Pro Bowl selection, after his historic season. Following injuries to both Garoppolo and QB C.J. Beathard, undrafted QB Nick Mullens was able to fill the void and excel for San Francisco's offense after being promoted to the active roster from the team's practice squad on September 26. Mullens started the final eight games of the season and accumulated the fourth-most passing yards by a quarterback in his first eight career games since 1970 (Patrick Mahomes, KC; Andrew Luck, Ind.; Cam Newton, Car.). On the defensive side of the ball, DL DeForest Buckner earned his first Pro Bowl appearance after leading the pass rushing unit with a career-high 12.0 sacks, which was the second-most among NFL DTs and the fourth-most by a member of the 49ers since 2000.

In his first season as head coach, Shanahan led the team to a 6-10 record, which was a four-game improvement from the previous year. After a difficult stretch to start the season, the 49ers won six of their final seven games, including victories in five-straight games to close out the season. With six wins on the season, San Francisco set the NFL record for the most wins by a team in NFL history that started 0-9. The 49ers closed the season as one of the hottest teams in the NFL, posting a perfect 5-0 record in December. San Francisco was the only team in the league to have a perfect record over the last month of the regular season as Shanahan became the fourth rookie NFL head coach in franchise history (Buck Shaw – 1950; Frankie Albert – 1956 & George Seifert – 1989), and the first in the NFL since Tony Sparano in 2008, to go undefeated in the month of December.

San Francisco's offense reached new heights under Shanahan in 2017. The 49ers ranked 12th in the NFL, averaging 349.2 yards per game, the highest output by the team since 2012 (361.8 – 11th). The team also finished the year with 3,925 net passing yards, the most in a single season since 2000 (4,239). QB Jimmy Garoppolo, who went 5-0 as a starter and engineered four, second half comeback wins, set the franchise record for most passing yards in his first five starts. QB C.J. Beathard set the single-season franchise record for attempts (224), completions (123) and passing yards (1,430) by a rookie quarterback. The offense also featured WR Marquise Goodwin who set career highs in both receptions (56) and receiving yards (962), as well as Pro Bowl selections for FB Kyle Juszczyk (second) and T Joe Staley (sixth).

Defensively, San Francisco battled through multiple injuries that left several key 49ers on the Injured Reserve List early in the season, but the 49ers defense improved as the season progressed. Over the final six weeks of the season, San Francisco held opponents to an average of 87.7 rushing yards per game while allowing 100 rushing yards just once in that span. The defense was led by DL DeForest Buckner who tallied 61 tackles and tied for second on the team with 3.0 sacks. The defense also had good productivity from rookies, including DL Solomon Thomas, who led the team with 10 tackles for loss while notching 3.0 sacks, and CB Ahkello Witherspoon, who tied for the team lead with two interceptions.

Special teams lived up to its name for the 49ers in 2017. K Robbie Gould had a career year, leading the NFL with a career-high 39 made field goals and finishing third in the NFL with a career-high 145 points. Gould's 39 made field goals were the second-most in a single-season in franchise history (K David Akers – 44 made field goals in 2011) and tied for the third-most in a single-season in NFL history. P Bradley Pinion set a career high with a 41.3 net punting average and the punt coverage unit ranked second in the NFL, allowing only 4.2 yards per return.

Prior to being named head coach of the 49ers, Shanahan had 15 seasons of coaching experience at the NFL level, including nine as an offensive coordinator for the Atlanta Falcons (2015-16), Cleveland Browns (2014), Washington (2010-13) and Houston Texans (2008-09). In six of his nine seasons as an offensive coordinator (2008-09, 2012-13 and 2015-16), Shanahan directed an offense that ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in yards gained.

Following the 2016 season, Shanahan was named Associated Press Assistant Coach of the Year, Coordinator of the Year by Sporting News and Assistant Coach of the Year by the Pro Football Writers of America after a record-setting performance by the Falcons offense en route to capturing the NFC South division title and an appearance in Super Bowl LI. Under Shanahan, the 2016 Falcons set franchise records in yards per game (415.8), points scored (540), net passing yards per game (295.3) and average yards per play (6.7).

Atlanta QB Matt Ryan, who was named Associated Press Most Valuable Player, Associated Press Offensive Player of the Year, Most Valuable Player/Offensive Player of the Year by the Pro Football Writers of America and FedEx Air Player of the Year, threw for a single-season franchise record and career-high 4,944 passing yards and 38 touchdowns, ranking second in the NFL in both categories, in 2016. He led the NFL with a passer rating of 117.1 on the season and threw a career-low seven interceptions. WR Julio Jones recorded 83 receptions for 1,409 yards (17.0 average) and six touchdowns in 14 games played. His 1,409 receiving yards were the second-most in the NFL that season. Both Jones and Ryan earned Associated Press First-Team All-Pro and 2017 Pro Bowl honors.

On the ground, Atlanta averaged 120.5 rushing yards per game and tallied 20 rushing touchdowns in 2016. RB Devonta Freeman registered 227 carries for a career-high 1,079 yards and 11 touchdowns, on his way to earning his second-consecutive Pro Bowl appearance.

In Shanahan's first year in Atlanta, the Falcons offense ranked seventh in the NFL, averaging 374.1 yards per game, ranked sixth with a 273.7 passing yards per game average and led the league in time of possession (32:19) in 2015. Julio Jones led the NFL with a career-high 1,871 receiving yards, while notching a career-high 136 receptions to share the League high with the Steelers WR Antonio Brown. Jones' receiving yards marked the second-highest total in a single season in NFL history, behind WR Calvin Johnson's 1,964-yard performance in 2012.

Shanahan joined the Falcons after spending 2014 as offensive coordinator of the Cleveland Browns. That year, his offense averaged 324.6 total yards and 108.0 rushing yards per game. Under Shanahan's direction, RBs Isaiah Crowell and Terrance West combined to rush for 1,280 yards on 319 carries (4.0 average), while WR Andrew Hawkins posted career highs in receptions (63) and receiving yards (824).

Prior to his stint in Cleveland, Shanahan spent four seasons (2010-13) as offensive coordinator of Washington. In 2013, Washington finished ninth in the NFL in total offense (369.7) and fifth in rushing yards per game (135.3). Second-year QB Robert Griffin III threw for 16 touchdowns and a career-high 3,203 passing yards, while WR Pierre Garçon set a franchise record and led the NFL with 113 receptions for a career-high 1,346 yards. RB Alfred Morris also rushed for 1,200-or-more yards for the second-consecutive season (1,275).

Washington won the NFC East division championship in 2012 as they became the first team in NFL history to register 3,400-or-more passing yards (3,422) and 2,700-or-more rushing yards (2,709) in the same season. Washington led the NFL, averaging 169.3 rushing yards per game and finished second in rushing touchdowns (22). Griffin won the 2012 Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year Award after setting NFL rookie records in passer rating (102.4), interception percentage (1.27), and rushing yards by a rookie quarterback (815). He completed 258 of his 393 passes (65.6 completion percentage) for 3,200 yards and 20 touchdowns. Fellow rookie Alfred Morris ranked second in the NFL with a single season franchise-record 1,613 yards and 13 touchdowns.

In 2011, Shanahan worked with QB Rex Grossman, who finished with the second-best statistical season of his career, having thrown for 3,151 yards, 16 touchdowns and a career-high 57.9 completion percentage. WR Santana Moss also had his best professional season in 2010 under Shanahan, notching a career-high 93 receptions for 1,115 yards and six touchdowns.

Before joining Washington, Shanahan spent four seasons (2006-09) with the Houston Texans, including the final two as the team's offensive coordinator. In 2009, he worked with QB Matt Schaub, who registered career highs in completions (396), completion percentage (67.9), passing yards (4,770), touchdowns (29) and passer rating (98.6). His completions and passing yard totals led the NFL that season. Additionally, WR Andre Johnson led the NFL in receiving yards in both 2008 (1,575) and 2009 (1,569) and led the NFL with 115 receptions in 2008. TE Owen Daniels registered career highs in both receptions (70) and receiving yards (862) with Houston in 2008. Shanahan spent his first season with Houston (2006) as the team's wide receivers coach and moved to coach the quarterbacks in 2007 prior to his promotion to offensive coordinator in 2008. He broke into the NFL with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2004 where he served as an offensive quality control coach for two seasons (2004-05). His first coaching experience came as a graduate assistant at UCLA in 2003.

Born December 14, 1979, in Minneapolis, MN, Shanahan played wide receiver at Duke University before transferring to the University of Texas in 2000, where he spent two seasons. He and his wife, Mandy, have three children – Stella, Carter and Lexi. Shanahan's father, Mike, who served as the 49ers offensive coordinator from 1992-94, was the head coach of the Denver Broncos (1995-2008) and Washington (2010-13), where he accumulated an overall win total of 178 victories (eight postseason), including victories in Super Bowls XXXII and XXXIII.

BRANT BOYER

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

25TH NFL SEASON (11 PLAYING/14 COACHING) × 1ST WITH 49ERS

Brant Boyer enters his 14th season as an NFL coach and his first as special teams coordinator for the 49ers. He joins the 49ers after spending the previous nine seasons as the special teams coordinator for the New York Jets.

During his Jets tenure (2016-24), Boyer led a special teams unit that ranked tied-for-second in total touchdowns (nine), second in blocked punts (eight) and tied-for-fifth in special teams points scored (63) and opponent kickoff return average (21.8). Under Boyer's guidance, two players (WR Braxton Berrios - 2021 & WR Andre Roberts - 2018) earned Associated Press First-Team All-Pro honors as returners, while three players (CB Justin Hardee - 2023, Roberts - 2019 and K Jason Myers - 2019) made Pro Bowl appearances. In 2024, Boyer led a special teams unit that ranked fourth in yards per kickoff return (30.3) and seventh in opponent yards per kickoff return (26.1). Under Boyer's guidance, WR Xavier Gipson registered 266 total punt return yards and 489 kickoff return yards, ranking seventh and eighth, respectively, in the NFL.

In 2023, Boyer's units finished in the top 10 in the NFL in multiple categories, including top five marks in opponent yards per kickoff return (15.4 – first), punts placed inside-the-10 (17 – first), punts placed inside-the-20 (36 – tied for second), punts blocked (one – tied for third) and special teams touchdowns (one – tied for third). Boyer's kickoff coverage unit held opponents to a NFL-low 123 kickoff return yards that season, which marked the second-fewest total kickoff return yards allowed by a team in a single season since at least 1970. The Jets also finished eighth in field goal percentage (92.3%), as K Greg Zuerlein converted on 35 of his 38 field goal attempts. Zuerlein's 35 made field goals were tied for the second-most in the NFL that season. Boyer also guided P Thomas Morstead to setting the Jets single-season franchise records in punting average (48.8) and average net yards per punt (41.8).

The 2022 Jets special teams units averaged 11.4 yards per punt return, ranking fourth in the NFL, and held its opponents to 20.9 yards per kickoff return, which was tied for the fifth-fewest in the NFL that season. Boyer also led the only unit to register three blocked kicks and a successful onside kick making them one of 17 teams in the NFL to accomplish the feat since at least 2000. Under Boyer's tutelage, Justin Hardee earned the first Pro Bowl selection of his career after registering a career-high 14 special teams tackles. Boyer also saw Zuerlein convert on a 60-yard field goal attempt, the longest made field goal in franchise history, which made him one of five kickers in the NFL to convert a field goal of 60-or-more yards that season.

In 2021, Boyer coached one of the best return units in the NFL with the help of Braxton Berrios, who earned an AP First-Team All-Pro selection after leading the NFL in yards per kickoff return (30.4). Berrios also finished second in yards per punt return (13.4), third in total kickoff return yards (852) and was one of eight players to return a kickoff for a touchdown that season. Berrios' top three finishes in yards per kickoff return and yards per punt return made him just the 10th player since at least 1970 to finish in the top three in both categories and the first player since Andre Roberts, who Boyer helped accomplish the feat in 2018. In addition to Berrios' individual success, the Jets special teams units finished with top five marks in total kickoff return yards (1,371 – first), yards per kickoff return (27.4 – first), opponent yards per kickoff return (17.8 – tied for first) and yards per punt return (12.1 – second).

In the 2020 season, the Jets led the NFL in total punt yards (3,598). Boyer guided rookie P Braden Mann to setting the rookie franchise records in punting average (43.9) and punting long (60 yards). Despite three different kickers being used throughout the season, the Jets converted on 75.0% of their field goal attempts and 83.3% of their extra point attempts.

In 2019, Boyer led a unit that finished in the top five in total punt yards (3,991 - first), special teams touchdowns (two – tied-for-first), yards per punt return (11.4 – second), opponent yards per kickoff return (19.3 - third) and special teams forced fumbles (two – tied for fourth). He also saw K Sam Ficken convert on three field goals of 50-or-more yards, which was tied for the eighth-most in the NFL.

Boyer led two players to career years in 2018 in Jason Myers and Andre Roberts. Myers was selected to the Pro Bowl after converting 33 of his 36 field goal attempts (91.7%), which is tied for the second-highest field goal percentage in franchise history and was tied for the third-most field goals made that season. Myers also converted on six of his seven field goal attempts from 50-or-more yards, which was tied for the most in the NFL. Five of those attempts were from 55-or-more yards, and Myers converted on all of them, which was tied for the third-most made field goals from 55-or-more yards in a single season in NFL history. Roberts earned an AP First-Team All-Pro selection and the first Pro Bowl selection of his career after leading the NFL in yards per punt return (14.1), total kick return yards (1,174) and finishing second in yards per kickoff return (29.4). He was one of five players in the NFL that season to return a kickoff for a touchdown.

In addition to the individual accolades, Boyer's special teams units finished with top five marks in 2018 in yards per punt return (13.0 – first), special teams touchdowns (two – tied for first), yards per kickoff return (26.9 – third) and field goal percentage (91.7% - fifth). The Jets also registered a blocked punt, field goal and extra point, making them one of two teams with a block of all three that season.

In 2017, Boyer saw P Lachlan Edwards average 46.6 yards per punt, the fourth-highest mark in Jets franchise history, and place 33 punts inside the 20-yard line, which was tied for the third-most in the NFL that season and marked the third-most punts placed inside-the-20 in a single season in franchise history. He also helped K Chandler Catanzaro connect on 25 of his 30 field goal attempts (83.3%) and all 29 of his extra point attempts. Catanzaro connected on a 57-yard field goal that season, the third-longest made field goal in team history.

In his first year as the Jets special teams coordinator (2016), Boyer saw K Nick Folk make 27 of his 31 field goal attempts (87.1%), which was tied for the 10th-highest field goal percentage in the NFL that season and became the sixth-highest field goal percentage in Jets franchise history.

Prior to his time in New York, Boyer spent four seasons (2012-15) as an assistant special teams coach for the Indianapolis Colts. He helped guide the Colts unit to top 10 ranks in the NFL in yards per kickoff return (24.4 – fourth), net yards per punt (40.8 – tied for sixth) and field goal percentage (88.5% – seventh) during that span.

In 2015, Boyer aided a kickoff coverage unit that held opponents to just 156 kickoff return yards, which was the fewest in the NFL that season and ranks as the sixth-fewest allowed by any team in the NFL since at least 1970.

In 2014, Boyer worked closely with P Pat McAfee and K Adam Vinatieri, helping them both earn AP First-Team All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors. McAfee registered a Colts franchise record and career-high 42.8 net yards per punt that season, the third-highest in the NFL, and placed 30 punts inside the 20-yard line, also setting the franchise record for the Colts. Vinatieri finished the year converting on 30 of his 31 field goal attempts (96.8%), which ranked first in the NFL among kickers with at least 30 field goal attempts. His 96.8% field goal percentage also became the second highest single season field goal percentage in team history. The Colts led the NFL in field goal percentage that season and finished with top marks in yards per kickoff return (28.0 – tied for second), opponent yards per punt return (5.9 – third), and total opponent kickoff return yards (587 – tied for fifth).

In 2013, Boyer mentored LS Matt Overton to the lone Pro Bowl selection of his career and aided a Colts special teams unit that made 15 field goals of 40-or-more yards, which was the most in the NFL that season. In his first season with the Colts (2012), the punt return unit averaged 11.1 yards per punt return, ranking seventh in the NFL.

Before joining the Colts staff, Boyer was a training camp intern for the New York Giants (2010) and Cleveland Browns (2009).

Originally a sixth-round (177th overall) draft pick by the Miami Dolphins in the 1994 NFL Draft, Boyer played linebacker and special teams for 11 seasons with the Dolphins (1994), Jacksonville Jaguars (1995-2000) and Cleveland Browns (2001-04). In 129 career games, he registered 250 tackles, 13.0 sacks, 15 passes defensed, six interceptions and one forced fumble. He also appeared in nine postseason contests (two starts) and added eight tackles.

A native of Ogden, UT, Boyer attended Snow College (1990-91) and the University of Arizona (1992-93), where he earned Second-Team All-Pac-10 honors (1993). He and his wife, Melissa, have two sons, Brayton, who is a kicker at the University of Montana, and Braddock.

BRIAN FLEURY

RUN GAME COORDINATOR/TIGHT ENDS

13TH NFL SEASON • 7TH WITH 49ERS

Brian Fleury is in his seventh season with the 49ers and first as the team's run game coordinator/tight ends coach. He spent the previous three seasons (2022-24) as tight ends coach, the 2020-21 seasons as an offensive quality control coach and the 2019 season as a defensive quality control coach with the team. He joined San Francisco after spending three years with the Miami Dolphins as the team's football research analyst (2016) and director of football research (2017-18).

In 2024, Fleury assisted a 49ers offense that finished tied for second in yards per play (6.2), fourth in yards per game (376.3) and passing yards per game (249.1) and tied for sixth in yards per rush (4.7). Fleury continued to work with TE George Kittle, who earned his fifth career Associated Press All-Pro (Second-Team) and sixth Pro Bowl selections of his career after leading the team in receptions (78), receiving yards (1,106) and receiving touchdowns (eight). Kittle also led all NFL tight ends in yards per reception (14.2) and games with 100-or-more receiving yards (four). With 1,106 yards on the season, Kittle registered his second-consecutive and fourth overall season with 1,000-or-more receiving yards, which is the third-most in franchise history and makes him one of five tight ends in NFL history to register four career seasons with 1,000-or-more receiving yards.

The 2023 San Francisco 49ers finished with top-five marks in total offense (398.4), scoring offense (28.9), rushing yards per game (140.5) and passing yards per game (257.9). The 49ers offense registered 491 total points and 6,773 total yards in 2023, both of which were the second-highest single-season marks in franchise history. Fleury once again coached Kittle, who registered his third season with 1,000-or-more receiving yards (1,020) to go along with six receiving touchdowns. He was named AP First-Team All-Pro and selected to the Pro Bowl Games.

In 2022, Fleury worked directly with Kittle, who caught a career-high 11 touchdowns, ranked second on the team with 60 receptions and 765 yards over 15 games and earned AP Second-Team All-Pro honors and a trip to the Pro Bowl. His 11 touchdown receptions were the third-most in a single season by a TE in franchise history.

Kittle finished the 2021 season ranked second on the team with 71 receptions for 910 yards and six touchdowns while earning a trip to the Pro Bowl. In 2020, Kittle added 48 receptions for 634 yards and two touchdowns, while TE Jordan Reed tallied 26 receptions for 231 yards and four touchdowns and TE Ross Dwelley played in all 16 games (nine starts) and set single-season career highs in receptions (19) and receiving yards (245).

In his roles with the Dolphins, Fleury worked closely with defensive coordinator Matt Burke to help prepare for upcoming opponents and follow NFL trends. He assisted the team's defensive backs in 2018 after assisting the defensive line in 2017 and linebackers in 2016.

Fleury joined Miami from the Cleveland Browns, where he was the team's outside linebackers coach in 2015 and assistant linebackers coach in 2014. In 2015, OLBs Armonty Bryant (5.5) and Christian Kirksey (3.5) set career highs in sacks. In his first season with the Browns, Fleury helped coach Paul Kruger to the most productive season of his career, as he set career highs in tackles (53), sacks (11.0) and forced fumbles (four). Kruger's 11.0 sacks tied for the fifth-most in team history at the time and were the most by a member of the Browns since 2006. In addition, the Browns finished second in the NFL with 21 interceptions, while also finishing tied for fourth in takeaways (29).

Prior to his time in Cleveland, Fleury spent the 2013 season as a quality control coach for the Buffalo Bills, working with the linebackers. He helped develop rookie LB Kiko Alonso, who registered 159 tackles, four interceptions, 2.0 sacks, four passes defensed, two fumble recoveries and one forced fumble and was named PFWA NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. The Bills set a franchise record with 57 sacks, the second-most in the NFL in 2013. Buffalo's defense also finished 10th in the NFL in total defense (333.4 yards per game).

Before Buffalo, Fleury spent four seasons (2009-12) at Towson University where he served as the special teams coordinator/defensive backs coach. He helped the team achieve top-10 national rankings in kickoff return yardage (24.28 yards per return) in 2011 and punt return defense (3.46 yards per return) in 2010. Towson won the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) in 2011 and earned a share of the conference title in 2012.

Fleury was an assistant at Sacred Heart University for four seasons, spending one year (2005) as secondary coach and the following three (2006-08) as defensive coordinator. In 2008, the Pioneers posted an 8-3 record, which ranked as the third-highest win total in the history of the school. Fleury began his coaching career as an intern and graduate assistant at the University of Maryland from 2003-04. In 2003, the Terrapins went 10-3, earned a victory in the Gator Bowl and finished 17th in the nation in the final poll.

Fleury began his collegiate career at Maryland before transferring to Towson, where he played quarterback for four years (1999-2002) and earned a degree in sport management from the school in 2002. He and his wife, Natasha, have one daughter, Nadia.

KLAY KUBIAK

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

5TH NFL SEASON × 5TH WITH 49ERS

Klay Kubiak is in his fifth season with the 49ers and first as the team's offensive coordinator. He spent the 2024 season as San Francisco's offensive passing game specialist and served two seasons (2022-23) as the 49ers assistant quarterbacks coach after spending the 2021 season as a defensive quality control coach with the team. Kubiak joined the 49ers after spending the previous three years (2018-20) as the head coach at Strake Jesuit College Preparatory (Houston, TX). He also served as the school's offensive coordinator from 2013-15 and for the 2017 season.

In 2024, Kubiak helped direct a 49ers offense that finished tied for second in yards per play (6.2) and fourth in yards per game (376.3), passing yards per game (249.1) and total yards (6,397). With his help, WR Jauan Jennings registered career highs in receptions (77), receiving yards (975) and receiving touchdowns (six). Kubiak also helped TE George Kittle earn Associated Press Second-Team All-Pro honors and the sixth Pro Bowl selection of his career after he led the team in receptions (78), receiving yards (1,106) and receiving touchdowns (eight). Kittle's 1,106 receiving yards marked his second-consecutive and fourth overall season with 1,000-or-more receiving yards, making him one of five tight ends in NFL history to register four such seasons. Kubiak also worked closely with QB Brock Purdy, helping him set the NFL records for the most games with a passer rating of 140.0-or-higher (six), 130.0-or-higher (10) and 120.0-or-higher (13) by a quarterback in their first three seasons.

The 2023 San Francisco 49ers saw Purdy lead the NFL in passer rating (113.0) and yards per attempt (9.6), while setting the franchise record for passing yards (4,280) and throwing 31 touchdowns. In his first year as a starter, Purdy became the first 49ers QB to throw 30-or-more touchdowns in a single season in 22 years and the first 49ers QB selected to a Pro Bowl since QB Jeff Garcia in 2002, leading the team to a spot in Super Bowl LVIII.

San Francisco saw three starting quarterbacks during the season in 2022, with rookie QB Brock Purdy becoming the team's starter in Week 13. The 49ers offense remained explosive, as the team ranked fifth in the NFL in yards per game (365.6) and averaged 5.9 yards per play, the fourth-highest mark in the league. Purdy went 7-1 as a starter, including the playoffs, and became the first quarterback in franchise history to win their first five starts and the third rookie quarterback in NFL history to win at least their first five starts.

Kubiak and the 49ers defense ranked third in the NFL in 2021, allowing 310.0 total yards per game. San Francisco also was sixth in the NFL, surrendering 206.5 passing yards per game. The Niners forced 22 fumbles on defense in 2021, the most in the NFL and the most in a single season by the 49ers since 1994.

During his three seasons as head coach at Strake Jesuit, Kubiak led the Crusaders to a 24-11 record and a playoff appearance in each season. Kubiak is the only coach in the school's history to win double-digit games as part of the University Interscholastic League (UIL), which Jesuit joined in 2003.

Kubiak attended Colorado State University where he was a quarterback for the Rams from 2007-10. He majored in English at the school and would later earn a master's degree in the subject from Texas Christian University in 2013. Kubiak used his educational background to teach English at Strake Jesuit College Preparatory.

A native of Houston, TX, Kubiak is the son of longtime NFL coach, and former 49ers quarterbacks coach, Gary Kubiak. His brother, Klint, is the offensive coordinator of the Seattle Seahawks. Kubiak is married to his wife, Marissa, and they have one daughter, Nora.

ROBERT SALEH

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

21ST NFL SEASON × 5TH WITH 49ERS

Robert Saleh (SAH-luh) enters his 21st NFL season and returns to the 49ers for his fifth season as the team's defensive coordinator.

Before returning to the 49ers, Saleh spent three-plus seasons (2021-24) as head coach of the New York Jets. While at the helm in New York, Saleh guided four different players in their first four years in the NFL to Associated Press First-Team All-Pro honors (WR Braxton Berrios, CB Sauce Gardner & DL Quinnen Williams) and Pro Bowl appearances (Gardner, LB Jermaine Johnson II & Williams). The Jets defense excelled with Saleh, ranking in the top 10 in the NFL in multiple categories over the 2022 and 2023 seasons. During that span (2022-23), Saleh's Jets ranked first in passing yards allowed per game (178.9) and opponent yards per play (4.7), second in total defense (301.7) and sixth in opponent yards per rush (4.1). The unit also tallied 93 sacks and 29 interceptions during that time, tied for the eighth and 10th-most, respectively, in the NFL. Over the first five games of the 2024 season, Saleh's Jets ranked first in passing yards allowed per game (136.6), tied-for-first in opponent yards per play (4.3), second in total defense (255.8) and tied-for-sixth in third-down defense (31.7%).

The 2023 Jets featured two AP First-Team All-Pros in Gardner and LB Quincy Williams as well as three Pro Bowl selections in Gardner, Johnson II and Quincy Williams. The Jets offense gained 4,566 total yards in 2023, with 64.1% of those yards coming from rookie and second-year players, the second-most in the NFL. The Jets also won four games after trailing in the fourth quarter that season, which was tied for the second-most in the NFL. Saleh saw second-year RB Breece Hall register career highs in rushing yards (994), receiving yards (591), yards from scrimmage (1,585) and total touchdowns (nine). Defensively, the Jets finished tied-for-first in opponent yards per play (4.6), second in passing yards allowed per game (168.3), third in total opponent yards (4,969) and total defense (292.3) and tied-for-eighth in takeaways (27). The Jets held opponents to seven points-or-less in 10 of their 17 games, which was tied for the most such games in the NFL that season. In addition to Gardner and Quincy Williams earning All-Pro honors, Johnson II registered career highs in tackles (55), sacks (7.5), interceptions (one), passes defensed (seven), forced fumbles (one) and fumble recoveries (one).

In 2022, Saleh led a roster that featured two AP First-Team All-Pro selections (Gardner & Quinnen Williams), a Second-Team All-Pro selection (LB C.J. Mosley) and four Pro Bowl selections (CB Justin Hardee, Gardner, Mosley & Quinnen Williams). He also was responsible for the development of the NFL's Offensive and Defensive Rookies of the Year in WR Garrett Wilson and Gardner, making the Jets the third team in NFL history to have both rookie players win the honor. Wilson led all rookie wide receivers in receptions (83) & receiving yards (1,103), while Gardner led the NFL in passes defensed (20). The Jets improved their win total by three games in 2022, which marked the sixth-largest win improvement in the NFL that season. Saleh improved the Jets to boasting a top defense that ranked tied-for-first in opponent yards per play (4.8), third in opponent passing yards per game (189.4), fourth in total points allowed (316) and total defense (311.1) and fifth in total opponent yards (5,288).

In his first year as head coach of the Jets, the 2021 team was led by rookie QB Zach Wilson (2,519 passing yards), rookie RB Michael Carter (639 rushing yards) and rookie WR Elijah Moore (538 receiving yards), which made the Jets just the second team since the merger to be led by rookies in passing yards, rushing yards and receiving yards.

Before taking the helm in New York, Saleh spent four seasons (2017-20) as the defensive coordinator for the 49ers. During that span, the 49ers defense ranked third in passing yards allowed per game (211.4), fourth in total defense (323.6) and opponent yards per play (5.1) and sixth in opponent yards per rush (4.1).

Despite injuries to key players throughout the year, the 2020 49ers defense held top five marks in passing yards allowed per game (207.9 - fourth), third-down defense (35.5% - fourth), total defense (314.4 - fifth), opponent yards per play (5.0 – tied for fifth) and total opponent yards allowed (5,030 - fifth). The unit also ranked tied-for-sixth in opponent yards per rush (4.0) and seventh in opponent rushing yards per game (106.4). The defense was led by LB Fred Warner, who earned AP First-Team All-Pro honors and a Pro Bowl selection after registering a team-high 125 tackles to go along with 1.0 sack, two interceptions, six passes defensed, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries.

In 2019, Saleh was named Coordinator of the Year by Sporting News after leading the 49ers defense to rank second in the NFL in total yards allowed per game (281.8), the fewest total yards allowed per game by the team since 1997 (250.8). San Francisco ranked first in the NFL in passing yards allowed per game (169.2), the fewest passing yards allowed per game in the NFL since 2009 (NYJ - 153.7). It marked the first time San Francisco led the NFL in passing yards allowed per game since 1987 (165.6). The 49ers ranked tied-for-second in the NFL in third-down percentage allowed (33.3) and tied-for-fifth in the NFL in sacks (48.0), the most by the team in a single season since 1998 (51.0). San Francisco also ranked seventh in both opponent completion percentage (61.3) and opponent quarterback rating (83.0).

Rookie DL Nick Bosa, who played in all 16 games (14 starts) and registered 47 tackles, 9.0 sacks, one interception, one forced fumble, two fumble recoveries and two passes defensed, was named Defensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press and the PFWA, and Rookie of the Year by Sporting News, PFWA and Pepsi. He was also named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team and was named a starter in the Pro Bowl. With DLs Arik Armstead (10.0), Bosa (9.0), DeForest Buckner (7.5) and Dee Ford (6.5), the 49ers were the only team in the NFL to have four-or-more players with 6.5-or-more sacks in 2019. LB Fred Warner started all 16 games and led the team with 118 tackles, while also adding 3.0 sacks, one interception (returned for a touchdown), three forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and nine passes defensed. Rookie LB Dre Greenlaw played in all 16 games (10 starts) and tallied 87 tackles, 1.0 sack, one interception and two passes defensed as he was named to the PFWA All-Rookie team. The secondary was led by CB Richard Sherman, who registered 57 tackles, three interceptions (one returned for a touchdown) and 11 passes defensed and was named AP Second-Team All-Pro.

In 2018, the 49ers defense registered 37.0 sacks, the most by the team in a single-season at the time since 2013 (38.0 sacks). The defense ranked in the top half of the league in rushing yards per play allowed (4.09 – seventh), opponent completion percentage (63.5 – 10th), yards per play allowed (5.42 – 11th), net passing yards per game allowed (233.3 – 11th), yards per game allowed (346.6 – 13th), rushing yards per game allowed (113.4 – 14th) and passing yards per play (6.45 – 14th). San Francisco was one of six teams (Baltimore Ravens, Buffalo Bills, Detroit Lions, Indianapolis Colts & New England Patriots) to allow fewer net yards per game, rushing yards per game and passing yards per game than in 2017.

The 49ers defense was anchored by Buckner who led the team with a career-high 12.0 sacks, ranked second with 67 tackles and was named to the Pro Bowl for the first time in his career. His 12.0 sacks were the most by a 49ers defender since LB Aldon Smith registered 19.5 sacks in 2012. Warner started all 16 games as a rookie and led the team with 123 tackles, ranking 12th in the NFL and third among all rookies. Warner became the first rookie in the NFL since 2000 to begin his career with four consecutive games with 10-or-more tackles, according to Gamebook Statistics.

In 2017, Saleh led a 49ers defensive unit that allowed 5.28 yards per play, which was a 0.62 yards per play improvement from 2016 and the third-largest improvement in the NFL from 2016-17 (Cle. - 0.76 yards per play; NYJ - 0.72 yards per play). The defense also finished the season holding their opponents under 100 yards rushing seven times. From Weeks 12-16, the 49ers streak of holding each of their five opponents under 100 yards rushing was tied for the longest streak in the NFL over that span (Arizona). It also marked the first time the 49ers held five straight opponents to under 100 yards rushing since Weeks 11-15 of the 2012 season. The 49ers defense was among the league leaders at getting into the opponent's backfield on running plays, finishing ranked tied for fifth in the NFL by forcing 53 rushes for negative yardage.

Saleh's defense continued to improve throughout the season. Over the final eight weeks of the year, San Francisco ranked second in the NFL in rushing yards allowed (640), tied for fourth in yards per carry allowed (3.62), fifth in rushing yards allowed per game (91.4), seventh in net yards allowed per game (314.4) and tied for eighth in rushing touchdowns allowed (four).

Saleh joined San Francisco after three years (2014-16) as the linebackers coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars. In 2016, Saleh's linebackers helped the Jacksonville defense rank fifth in passing yards allowed (215.3) and sixth in opponent rushing average (3.82). Team captain LB Paul Posluszny started all 16 games at MLB and led the team in tackles for the second-consecutive season. According to Jaguars team statistics, LB Telvin Smith registered 118 tackles while starting all 16 games at outside linebacker for the first time in his career. Smith's 350 career tackles were the most by a Jaguars player in his first three NFL seasons.

In 2015, the Jaguars defense allowed 3.68 yards per rushing attempt, the fifth-lowest rushing average allowed in the NFL. Posluszny led the Jaguars and ranked fifth in the league with 133 tackles, according to Gamebook Statistics, while tying with Smith for the team lead with 13 tackles for loss. According to Jaguars team statistics, Smith registered a career-high 128 tackles in 2015.

Under Saleh's guidance, Smith stepped in the starting lineup and ranked third among all rookies with 99 tackles, according to Gamebook Statistics, in 2014. Smith led the team with two fumble recoveries while ranking second with nine tackles for loss. After a season-ending injury to Posluszny midway through the year, LB J.T. Thomas stepped in and set a career high in tackles along with two interceptions, two tackles for loss and five passes defensed.

Prior to Jacksonville, Saleh spent three seasons (2011-13) as a defensive quality control coach for the Seattle Seahawks. During his three seasons with the Seahawks, he was responsible for assisting the defensive staff with day-to-day duties with a focus on the linebackers. Working under linebackers coach Ken Norton Jr., Saleh aided in the development of LB K.J. Wright, LB Bobby Wagner and Super Bowl XLVIII MVP LB Malcolm Smith.

Before joining the Seahawks, Saleh spent six seasons with the Houston Texans, serving as a coaching intern (2005), defensive assistant (2006-08) and assistant linebackers coach (2009-10). In Houston, Saleh oversaw the growth of the Texans linebackers, including AP Defensive Rookie of the Year performances by DeMeco Ryans (2006) and Brian Cushing (2009). In 2009, the Pro Bowl duo of Ryans and Cushing were the only teammates to both rank among the league's top 10 tacklers, according to Gamebook Statistics.

Saleh joined the Texans after three seasons working in the collegiate ranks. He began his career as an offensive assistant/tight ends (2002) and defensive assistant/defensive line (2003) at Michigan State University before spending one season (2004) as a defensive assistant/defensive line coach at Central Michigan University and a brief stint (2005) at the University of Georgia as a defensive assistant/linebackers coach.

A native of Dearborn, MI, Saleh attended Northern Michigan University where he started at tight end for four years. Saleh and his wife, Sanaa, have eight children: six sons, Adam, Zane, Michael, Sam, Jacob and Robert Jr., and two daughters, Mila and Ella.

GUS BRADLEY

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH DEFENSE

20TH NFL SEASON × 1ST WITH 49ERS

Gus Bradley is in his first season as the 49ers assistant head coach defense. He joins the 49ers after spending the previous three seasons (2022-24) as the defensive coordinator for the Indianapolis Colts.

The 2024 Colts finished the season tied for the third-most forced fumbles (17) and tied for the fifth-most interceptions (16) in the NFL. LB Zaire Franklin earned Associated Press Second-Team All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors after leading the NFL with 173 tackles. In 2023, Indianapolis ranked fifth in sacks (51) as DL DeForest Buckner earned the third Pro Bowl appearance of his career. In his first season in Indianapolis in 2022, Franklin set then-career highs in tackles (166), passes defensed (six), sacks (3.0) and forced fumbles (three).

Prior to joining the Colts, Bradley spent the 2021 season as the defensive coordinator for the Las Vegas Raiders. Under Bradley, DL Maxx Crosby and LB Denzel Perryman were each named to the Pro Bowl, with Crosby finishing with 8.0 sacks and Perryman registering a team-high 154 tackles.

Bradley went to Las Vegas following four seasons (2017-20) as the defensive coordinator of the Los Angeles Chargers. Over that span, Bradley helped DL Joey Bosa (2018 & 2020-21) and DL Melvin Ingram III (2018-20) earn multiple trips to the Pro Bowl.

In 2020, the Chargers defense ranked 10th in the NFL in total defense (343.4) and ninth in passing yards per game allowed (223.6). Bradley's defense held opponents to the sixth-fewest yards per game (313.1) and the fifth-fewest passing yards per game average (200.3) in 2019. In 2018, the Chargers were ninth in the NFL in total defense (333.7) and ninth in passing defense (227.9) as S Derwin James Jr. earned Associated Press First-Team All-Pro honors.

Under Bradley, the 2017 Chargers ranked third in the NFL in points per game allowed (17.0) and passing yards per game allowed (197.3). CB Casey Hayward earned his second-consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl.

Bradley spent more than three seasons (2013-16) as the head coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars. The Jaguars defense finished the 2016 season ranked sixth in yards per game allowed (321.7) and fifth in passing yards per game allowed (215.3). In 2015, Jacksonville's offense produced 44 touchdowns, the third-most in team history, as the team scored 376 points. The 2014 Jaguars finished the season with 45 sacks, ranking tied for sixth in the NFL, as the team led the NFL with 12 sack-fumbles and ranked third with 19 total forced fumbles. In his first season in Jacksonville (2013), Bradley helped LB Paul Posluszny set career highs in tackles (137) and sacks (3.0).

Before his tenure in Jacksonville, Bradley spent four seasons (2009-12) as the defensive coordinator for the Seattle Seahawks. In 2012, the Seahawks led the NFL by holding opponents to a franchise-low 15.3 points per game. Bradley's defense held opponents to 306.2 yards per game, which ranked fourth in the NFL, while also finishing 10th in rushing defense (103.1) and sixth in passing defense (203.1). Bradley also coached DL Bruce Irvin and LB Bobby Wagner in their rookie seasons. Irvin was the 15th overall pick of the 2012 NFL Draft and led all rookies with 8.0 sacks, while Wagner (second round, 47th overall) ranked second among rookies in tackles (140), and fourth in interceptions (three). Under Bradley, S Earl Thomas earned Associated Press First-Team All-Pro honors and his second-consecutive Pro Bowl nod, while second-year CB Richard Sherman earned Associated Press First-Team All-Pro honors after leading the team and tying for second in the NFL with eight interceptions.

In 2011, Bradley's defensive unit ranked fourth in opponent yards per rush attempt (3.79), fifth in turnover differential (+8), fifth in takeaways (31), seventh in points allowed per game (19.7) and ninth in yards per game (332.2). Bradley's defensive unit also saw three players in their secondary earn Pro Bowl nods in S Kam Chancellor, CB Brandon Browner and Thomas.

Bradley first entered the NFL coaching ranks with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers where he spent three seasons (2006-08) working under head coach Jon Gruden and defensive coordinator Monte Kiffin as the linebackers coach (2006-07) and defensive quality control (2008). Under Bradley's tenure, he helped LB Derrick Brooks earn two Pro Bowl nods (2007 & 2009).

Bradley began his coaching career at North Dakota State where he spent two seasons (1990-91) as a graduate assistant followed by a four-year run as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Fort Lewis College (1992-95). He also briefly served as the head coach at Fort Lewis at the beginning part of 1996. Bradley returned to North Dakota State in 1996 and spent the next 10 seasons (1996-05) serving in a number of different roles, including linebackers coach (1996), defensive coordinator (1997-99), assistant head coach/defensive coordinator (2000-02 & 2005) and assistant head coach/linebackers (2003-04). As NDSU's defensive coordinator in 2005, the Bison led the Great West Football Conference in scoring defense, pass defense, total defense and turnover margin.

A native of Zumbrota, MN, Bradley played collegiately at North Dakota State (1984-88), where he was a safety/punter, a four-time academic All-North Central Conference selection and a part of three NCAA Division II Football Championships (1984 & 1987-88). He earned a bachelor's degrees in business administration (1989) and physical education (1990) from North Dakota State as well as a master's degree in athletic administration in 1992. Bradley and his wife, Michaela, have four children: Carter, Anna, Eli and Ella. Carter is a quarterback for the Las Vegas Raiders.

CHRIS FOERSTER

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/OFFENSIVE LINE

33RD NFL SEASON × 11TH WITH 49ERS

Chris Foerster is in 11th overall season with the 49ers and first as the team's assistant head coach/offensive line coach. He spent the previous three seasons (2022-24) as San Francisco's run game coordinator/offensive line coach after spending the 2021 season as offensive line coach. He also worked as the team's offensive line coach from 2008-09 and 2015. Foerster spent the 2020 season as the 49ers assistant offensive line coach after serving as a consultant with the 49ers for two seasons (2018-19).

In 2024, Foerster's offensive line helped the 49ers offense finish tied for second in yards per play (6.2), fourth in total yards (6,397), yards per game (376.3) and passing yards per game (249.1) and tied for sixth in yards per rush (4.7). Foerster also oversaw the development of rookie draft pick OL Dominick Puni, who was named to the Pro Football Writer's of America All-Rookie Team.

The 2023 San Francisco 49ers finished with top-five marks in total offense (398.4), scoring offense (28.9), rushing yards per game (140.5) and passing yards per game (257.9). The 49ers offense registered 491 total points and 6,773 total yards in 2023, both of which were the second-highest single-season marks in franchise history. Foerster once again coached T Trent Williams, who was named Associated Press First-Team All-Pro for the third-consecutive season and selected to the Pro Bowl Games.

In 2022, the 49ers offensive line went five games without allowing a sack, matching the most registered by the 49ers in a single season since 1980 (2000). Williams was selected to his 10th Pro Bowl and earned Associated Press First-Team All-Pro honors for the second-consecutive season. The 2022 49ers offense averaged 5.94 yards per play, which ranked fourth in the NFL.

The 2021 49ers offensive line saw three of five members earn Pro Bowl honors in Williams, G Laken Tomlinson and C Alex Mack. Williams was selected to the Associated Press 2021 First-Team All-Pro list for the first time in his career. San Francisco's offense finished the season averaging 127.4 rushing yards, ranking seventh in the NFL.

In 2020, the 49ers offensive line was anchored by All-Pro Williams, who was named to his eighth Pro Bowl, and Tomlinson, who started all 16 games. The 49ers offense averaged 370.1 yards per game (118.1 rushing yards; 252.1 passing yards) and ranked tied for 10th in the NFL with 19 rushing touchdowns.

Prior to returning to San Francisco, Foerster spent two seasons (2016-17) with the Miami Dolphins as the run game coordinator/offensive line coach (2017) and offensive line coach (2016). In 2016, the offensive line was critical to Miami's four-win turnaround from 2015. After starting the season 1-4, the Dolphins won nine of their final 11 games to earn a playoff berth and their first winning season since 2008. During those 11 games, the team's offensive line helped the Dolphins rank third in the NFL with 132.9 rushing yards per game and tied for third with just 13 sacks allowed.

In 2014, Foerster's unit assisted RB Alfred Morris to reach 1,000 yards for the third consecutive season (1,074) and earned a trip to the 2015 Pro Bowl. His offensive line aided one of the NFL's top rushing attacks during the 2012-13 seasons as well.

Washington ran for a league-leading 4,873 yards in that two-season span and was one of only two teams to average at least five yards per carry across those two years (5.01). In 2013, Foerster's unit powered Washington to the fifth-most rushing yards in the league (2,164) and helped the team rush for 2,000 yards in consecutive seasons for the first time since 2005-06. Those seasons led to Pro Bowl honors for Williams, the first two of his career.

In 2012, Foerster led a unit that helped Washington rush for a team-record 2,709 yards, ranking first in the NFL in that category for the first time since 1933. The team's offensive line was a major part of Washington's first NFC East Championship since 1999, blocking for the team's young backfield that featured rookie QB Robert Griffin III and Morris, who also was a rookie. Morris set a new single-season team high in rushing yards with 1,613, while Griffin III led all quarterbacks with 815 rushing yards that season.

Foerster helped groom two rookies as starters in 2011, as undrafted free agent T Willie Smith and seventh-round pick G Maurice Hurt started a combined 11 games for Washington in Weeks 9-16. The offensive line featured 10 different starting combinations that season. During the 2010 season, Foerster's offensive line featured four new starters that helped Washington lead the league in receptions of 50-or-more yards (nine).

Prior to joining Washington, Foerster spent two years (2008-09) working with the offensive line of the 49ers. In 2008, he was originally brought on as co-offensive line coach before being named offensive line coach in Week 8 of the season. In 2009, Foerster's unit helped RB Frank Gore rush for 1,120 yards, his fourth consecutive 1,000-yard season. Gore set a career high with 10 rushing touchdowns that season and was selected to the Pro Bowl. During his time with San Francisco, he also assisted in the development of perennial Pro Bowl T Joe Staley.

From 2005 to 2007, Foerster was the offensive line coach and assistant head coach for the Baltimore Ravens. Under Foerster, 2013 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee T Jonathan Ogden made the Pro Bowl in all three seasons. In 2007, RB Willis McGahee rushed for 1,207 yards, the second-highest total of his career, and earned a trip to the Pro Bowl. In 2006, the Ravens offense set team records for fewest sacks allowed (17) and most wins in a season (13) with Foerster.

Before joining the Ravens, Foerster was the offensive coordinator for the Miami Dolphins (2004), tight ends coach for the Indianapolis Colts (2002-03) and offensive line coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1996-2001). While in Tampa Bay, Foerster helped three players make a combined five Pro Bowl appearances – C Tony Mayberry (1997-99), C Jeff Christy (2000) and G Randall McDaniel (2000). As the assistant offensive line/tight ends coach for the Minnesota Vikings (1993-95), Foerster helped tutor 2009 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee G Randall McDaniel, who earned Pro Bowl appearances in all three seasons.

Foerster also worked in the collegiate ranks, serving as the offensive line coach for the University of Minnesota (1992), assistant offensive line/special teams coach at Stanford University (1988-91) and offensive line coach for Colorado State University (1983-87). He began his coaching career in 1982 as a graduate assistant at Colorado State.

Foerster graduated with a degree in history after a successful playing career with CSU as a center from 1979 to 1982, starting as a walk-on before earning a scholarship as a sophomore.

Foerster and his late wife, Michelle, have three children: Kathleen, Jake and Micah.

COLT ANDERSON

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

15TH NFL SEASON (9 PLAYING/6 COACHING) • 1ST WITH 49ERS

Colt Anderson is in his first season as the 49ers assistant special teams coach. He joined the 49ers after spending the 2024 season as the special teams coordinator for the Tennessee Titans. With Tennessee, Anderson led a special teams unit that ranked fourth in kickoff return yards (1,081), fifth in field goal percentage (92.6%) and eighth in yards per punt (49.2%). Under his guidance, P Ryan Stonehouse ranked third in the NFL among qualifying punters in average yards per punt (50.6). Prior to joining the Titans, Anderson spent four years as an assistant special teams coach with the Cincinnati Bengals. Prior to his NFL coaching career, Anderson played eight NFL seasons as a safety with the Philadelphia Eagles (2010-13), Indianapolis Colts (2014-15) and Buffalo Bills (2016-17). Throughout his eight-year career, he registered 48 tackles, four passes defensed, two forced fumbles, one interception and one fumble recovery and added 58 tackles on special teams. Anderson played collegiately at the University of Montana for four seasons (2005-08) where he totaled 313 tackles, 25 passes defensed 14.5 tackles for loss, eight interceptions, five forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and 1.0 sack. He earned First-Team All-Big Sky (2006-08) and First-Team All-American (2008) honors during his collegiate career. He received his degree in business information systems and earned a teaching certificate in secondary education. After his NFL career, Anderson spent one season (2019) as a volunteer coach at his alma mater, Butte (MT) High School. Anderson and his wife, Keelie, founded the Colt Anderson Dream Big Foundation, a non-profit focused on implementing "programs and experiences that will involve our youth, getting them excited about investing in their future." He and his wife have four sons: Cage, Krew, Coye and Kace.

RONALD BLAIR III

SPECIAL TEAMS QUALITY CONTROL

8TH NFL SEASON (6 PLAYING/2 COACHING) • 7TH WITH 49ERS

Ronald Blair III is in his first season as the 49ers special teams quality control coach. He spent the 2024 season working with the team's defensive line as a 2024 Bill Walsh NFL Diversity Coaching Fellow. Blair worked alongside defensive line coach Kris Kocurek as the 2024 49ers defense finished with the fifth-ranked passing defense (192.8) and the eighth-ranked total defense (317.4) in the NFL. DL Nick Bosa led the team with 9.0 sacks and finished the season with 52 tackles, one interception, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery and earned the fifth Pro Bowl selection of his career. The defensive line unit also saw DL Leonard Floyd register 8.5 sacks on the season and DL Kevin Givens register a career-high 3.5 sacks. Prior to coaching, Blair was drafted in the fifth round (142nd overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft by the 49ers. He went on to spend six seasons as a defensive lineman with the 49ers (2016-20) and New York Jets (2021) where he appeared in 55 games (five starts) and registered 116 tackles, 14.5 sacks, two fumble recoveries and one forced fumble. A native of Greensboro, GA, Blair attended Appalachian State University (2011-15) where he started all 51 games he appeared in and recorded 221 tackles, 53.5 tackles for loss, 21.0 sacks, four fumble recoveries, two forced fumbles, two passes defensed and one interception. He earned his bachelor's degree in health promotion from the school.

CAMERON BROWN

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

3RD NFL SEASON × 3RD WITH 49ERS

Cameron Brown is in his third season as a 49ers defensive quality control coach. He joined the 49ers after two years (2021-22) at Division III Case Western Reserve University where he worked as an assistant defensive line coach (2021) and outside linebackers coach (2022). In 2024, Brown assisted a 49ers defense that finished with the fifth-ranked passing defense (192.8) and the eighth-ranked total defense (317.4) in the NFL. He worked closely with the defensive line, which was led by DL Nick Bosa (9.0 sacks) and DL Leonard Floyd (8.5 sacks). The 2023 49ers defense finished in the top-10 in the NFL in total defense (303.9) and rushing defense (89.7), tied for first in interceptions (22) and tied for the seventh-most sacks (48). In 2022, Brown helped lead Case Western's defense to top-five finishes in total defense (288.1 yards allowed per game) and scoring defense (18.5 points per game) in the Presidents' Athletic Conference (PAC). Brown began his coaching career at Case Western after spending one season (2020) playing defensive end for the Cineplexx Blue Devils in the Austrian Football League. A native of Westlake, OH, Brown spent three seasons (2016-19) at Case Western, where he appeared in 43 games and registered 187 tackles, 34.5 sacks, 60 TFLs, one INT, 10 passes defensed, 12 FFs and five FRs. Brown holds the program records in career sacks (34.5) and single-season sacks (15.0) at Case Western. In 2018, Brown was named the PAC Defensive Player of the Year after posting 49 tackles, 15.0 sacks, 18.5 TFLs, six FFs, and one FR. He earned his bachelor's degree in business management from Case Western in 2020.

RAY BROWN

DEFENSIVE BACKS/CORNERBACKS

1ST NFL SEASON × 1ST WITH 49ERS

Ray Brown enters his first season with the 49ers as the team's defensive backs/cornerbacks coach. He joins the 49ers after 15 years of collegiate coaching experience, spending the 2024 season as the secondary coach for Boston College. Under Brown's guidance, the 2024 Boston College defense was led by DB KP Price, who registered a team-high 85 tackles and five passes defensed. Brown helped lead a defense that allowed 23.8 points per game which ranked fifth in the ACC. The Eagles defense ranked seventh in total yards per game (348.9) and eighth in total yards allowed (4,536) in the ACC in 2024. Prior to Boston College, Brown spent eight seasons as cornerbacks coach at Washington State University (2022-23), Utah State University (2021), Troy University (2019-20) and Abilene Christian University (2016-18). Brown served as a graduate assistant/cornerbacks coach at Arizona State University (2014-15), a graduate assistant/safeties coach at Washington State University (2013) and special teams coordinator/defensive backs coach at Division II Oklahoma Baptist University (2012). Brown began his coaching career at his alma mater, East Central (OK) University, as a run game coordinator/running backs coach (2010-11). A native of Oklahoma City, OK, Brown attended East Central for four seasons (2006-09) where he was a four-year starter at cornerback. He earned his bachelor's degree in business marketing in 2009 and later earned his master's degree from the school in sports administration in 2011. Brown and his wife, Amber, have three children: Gavin, Rylin and Peyton.

6TH NFL SEASON × 2ND WITH 49ERS

Cameron Clemmons is in his second season as the team's assistant offensive line coach. He joined the 49ers after spending the previous four seasons (2020-23) with the Las Vegas Raiders where he served as the assistant offensive line coach (2021-23) after initially working as an offensive quality control coach (2020). In 2024, Clemmons assisted an offensive line unit that helped the 49ers offense finish tied for second in yards per play (6.2), fourth in total yards (6,397), yards per game (376.3) and passing yards per game (249.1) and tied for sixth in yards per rush (4.7). Clemmons worked closely with rookie draft pick OL Dominick Puni, who was named to the Pro Football Writer's of America All-Rookie Team. Clemmons began his coaching career at the collegiate level, serving four seasons (2016-19) as a graduate assistant/offensive quality control analyst at the University of Tennessee and one season (2015) as an offensive intern at Eastern Kentucky University. Clemmons also participated in the Bill Walsh Minority Fellowship with the New England Patriots in 2017 while he was a graduate assistant. A native of Mt. Juliet, TN, Clemmons spent five years (2010-14) at Western Kentucky University, where he appeared in 46 games playing along the offensive line throughout his collegiate career and earned Second-Team All-Conference USA honors his senior season, while also starting on the offensive line of the East-West Shrine All-Star Game. Clemmons signed as an undrafted free agent with the San Diego Chargers in 2015 before playing one season in the Canadian Football League with the Ottawa Redblacks. He earned his bachelor's degree in biochemistry at Western Kentucky before earning a master's degree in agricultural leadership, education and communications from Tennessee in 2018.

JOE GRAVES

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT/QUARTERBACKS

Joe Graves is in his fourth season with the 49ers and first as the team's offensive assistant/quarterbacks coach. He spent the previous three seasons (2022-24) as San Francisco's assistant offensive line coach. Graves joined the 49ers after spending the 2021 season as the special teams coordinator/tight ends coach at Georgia Southern University. In 2024, Graves assisted an offensive line unit that helped the 49ers offense finish tied for second in yards per play (6.2), fourth in total yards (6,397), yards per game (376.3) and passing yards per game (249.1) and tied for sixth in yards per rush (4.7). Graves worked closely with rookie draft pick OL Dominick Puni, who was named to the Pro Football Writer's of America All-Rookie Team. Graves also spent time at Georgia Southern after spending three seasons (2018-20) at the University of Louisiana-Monroe, serving as the team's running backs coach (2019-20) and as a graduate assistant (2018) working with the offensive line. Prior to his time at Louisiana-Monroe, Graves began coaching as the running backs coach at his alma mater of Southeastern Louisiana University (2016-17). A native of Covington, LA, Graves spent four years (2012-15) at Southeastern Louisiana, where he was an offensive lineman for the school, appeared in 44 games and earned All-Southland honors in each of his final three seasons. He received a bachelor's degree in history from Southeastern Louisiana in May of 2016. Graves and his wife, Melanie, have one daughter, Charlotte.

LEONARD HANKERSON

WIDE RECEIVERS/PASSING GAME SPECIALIST

10TH NFL SEASON (5 PLAYING/5 COACHING) × 5TH WITH 49ERS

Leonard Hankerson is in his fifth season with the 49ers and first as the team's wide receivers/passing game specialist. He spent the previous three seasons (2022-24) as San Francisco's wide receivers coach and spent the 2021 season as an offensive quality control coach with the team. Hankerson joined the 49ers after spending two seasons (2019-20) as the outside wide receivers coach at Stephen F. Austin State University. In 2024, Hankerson helped the 49ers offense finish the season with the fourth-ranked total offense (376.3) and passing offense (249.1). He guided WR Jauan Jennings to career highs in receptions (77), receiving yards (975) and receiving touchdowns (six). WR Deebo Samuel Sr. tallied 51 receptions for 670 receiving yards and three touchdowns, giving him 22 receiving touchdowns and 20 rushing touchdowns in his career, which made him the only wide receiver in NFL history to register 20-or-more receiving touchdowns and 20-or-more rushing touchdowns in a career. Hankerson also oversaw the development of rookie draft pick WR Ricky Pearsall, who appeared in 11 games and registered 31 receptions for 400 receiving yards and three touchdowns. Hankerson was drafted by the Washington Commanders in the third round (79th overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft. Throughout his five-year NFL career with Washington (2011-14), Atlanta Falcons (2015), Buffalo Bills (2015) and New England Patriots (2015), Hankerson appeared in 41 games (14 starts) and registered 107 receptions for 1,408 yards and nine touchdowns. He also saw action in one postseason contest where he registered two receptions for 27 yards. A native of Fort Lauderdale, FL, Hankerson spent four years (2007-10) at the University of Miami, where he appeared in 41 games (30 starts) and registered 134 receptions for 2,160 yards and 22 touchdowns. He is married to his wife, Kayla, and has five children: daughters Kienarria, Zara and Zoe, and sons Leonard III and Lenaris.

ANDREW HAYES-STOKER

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT/WIDE RECEIVERS

14TH NFL SEASON × 5TH WITH 49ERS

Andrew Hayes-Stoker is in his fifth season with the 49ers and first as the team's offensive assistant/wide receivers coach. He spent the previous four years as San Francisco's assistant defensive backs coach (2023-24) and defensive quality control coach (2021-22). In 2024, Hayes-Stoker assisted the fifth-ranked passing defense in the NFL (192.8). He helped DB Deommodore Lenoir register a career-high 85 tackles to go along with nine passes defensed, two interceptions and the first forced fumble of his career. He also assisted with the development of rookie draft picks CB Renardo Green and S Malik Mustapha. Green finished the season with 60 tackles, a team-high 13 passes defensed, one interception and one forced fumble. His 13 passes defensed were tied for the second-most among rookies in the NFL. Mustapha finished the year with 71 tackles, five passes defensed and one interception. His 71 tackles were the fifth most on the team. Hayes-Stoker joined the 49ers after spending the previous five seasons (2016-20) as the wide receivers coach at the University of Illinois. Prior to his time at Illinois, Hayes-Stoker spent two years (2014-15) with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as the team's wide receivers coach. He joined the Buccaneers after spending the 2013 season as the running backs coach at Florida International University. Before his season at FIU, Hayes-Stoker spent seven years with the Chicago Bears as an offensive assistant (2006-09) and assistant wide receivers coach (2010-12). He began his coaching career at Texas A&M University as an offensive quality control graduate assistant in 2005 after spending the previous season (2004) as a recruiting assistant at TCU. A native of Arlington, TX, Hayes-Stoker played running back at TCU (1999-2002), where he was a two-time team captain and earned All-American academic honors. He graduated from the school with a bachelor's degree in business administration and a master's degree in education. Hayes-Stoker and his wife, Alexis, have one son, Noah.

JOHNNY HOLLAND

LINEBACKERS

34TH NFL SEASON (7 PLAYING/27 COACHING) × 9TH WITH 49ERS

Johnny Holland is his ninth season with the 49ers and sixth as the team's linebackers coach. He previously served as the team's linebackers coach in 2017. Holland also worked as the 49ers run game specialist/outside linebackers coach from 2018-20. In 2024, the 49ers defense finished with the fifth-ranked passing defense (192.8) and the eighth-ranked total defense (317.4) in the NFL. Holland guided LB Fred Warner to his fourth career Associated Press First-Team All-Pro and Pro Bowl selections after he led the team in tackles (131) and forced fumbles (four), while also registering 1.0 sack, seven passes defensed and two interceptions, one of which was returned for a touchdown. Warner became one of three players in the NFL to register 130-or-more tackles in each of the previous four seasons (2021-24) and became the second linebacker in franchise history to register 10.0-or-more sacks and 10-or-more interceptions in a career (LB Keena Turner). Before joining the 49ers, Holland worked as the inside linebackers coach for the Cleveland Browns (2016) and coached three seasons in the Canadian Football League (2013-2015). Holland also coached with the Houston Texans (2006-10), the Detroit Lions (2003-05) and the Seattle Seahawks (2000-02). He began coaching in the NFL as a defensive quality control coach with the Green Bay Packers from 1995-97. Originally a second-round (41st overall) draft pick by the Packers in the 1987 NFL Draft, Holland played seven seasons (1987-93) with the Packers where he registered 100-or-more tackles in each of his final six seasons. A native of Hempstead, TX, Holland was a four-year letterman (1983-86) at Texas A&M University where he led the Aggies in tackles in each of his final three seasons. He was enshrined in the Texas A&M Hall of Fame in 1993 as well as the Cotton Bowl Hall of Fame in 2000. Holland and his wife, Faith, have two children: son, Jordan, and daughter, Joli.

KRIS KOCUREK

DEFENSIVE LINE

19TH NFL SEASON (2 PLAYING/17 COACHING) × 7TH WITH 49ERS

Kris Kocurek (KO-SIR-ick) is in his seventh season as the 49ers defensive line coach. He joined San Francisco after spending the 2018 season as the defensive line coach with the Miami Dolphins. In 2024, Kocurek assisted a 49ers defense that finished with the fifth-ranked passing defense (192.8) and the eighth-ranked total defense (317.4) in the NFL. He again coached DL Nick Bosa, who led the team with 9.0 sacks and finished the season with 52 tackles, one interception, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery and earned the fifth Pro Bowl selection of his career. Kocurek also helped DL Leonard Floyd register 8.5 sacks on the season and saw DL Kevin Givens register a career-high 3.5 sacks. Prior to Miami, Kocurek spent nine years with the Detroit Lions, first as the team's assistant defensive line coach (2009), followed by eight seasons as defensive line coach (2010-17). Prior to Detroit, Kocurek served as the defensive line coach at Stephen F. Austin State University (2008), assistant head coach/defensive line coach at West Texas A&M University (2007) and defensive line coach at Texas A&M University-Commerce (2006). A native of Rockdale, TX, Kocurek was originally drafted in the seventh-round (237th overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks as a defensive lineman. Following his release from the Seahawks prior to the 2001 season, he was signed to the Tennessee Titans practice squad and was later promoted to the team's active roster and appeared in one game with Tennessee in 2001 before spending the 2002 season on the Injured Reserve List. Kocurek played collegiately at Texas Tech, where he was a three-time All-Big 12 selection (1998-2000). He was selected team captain and named the team's defensive player of the year as a senior in 2000. He earned his bachelor's degree from Texas Tech and his master's from Texas A&M University-Kingsville. Kocurek and his wife, Amy, have one daughter, Presley, and one son, Koleson.

MICK LOMBARDI

QUARTERBACKS

15TH NFL SEASON × 6TH WITH 49ERS

Mick Lombardi is in his sixth overall season with the 49ers and first as the team's quarterbacks coach. He spent the 2024 season with the 49ers as senior offensive assistant. In his role as senior offensive assistant in 2024, Lombardi helped lead a 49ers offense that featured two AP Second-Team All-Pros in FB Kyle Juszczyk and TE George Kittle. San Francisco's offense finished tied for second in yards per play (6.2), fourth in yards per game (376.3), fourth in passing yards per game (249.1) and fourth in total yards (6,397). With Lombardi's help, Kittle registered his second-consecutive and fourth overall 1,000-yard season, giving him the third-most 1,000-yard seasons in franchise history and making him one of five tight ends in NFL history to tally four career seasons with 1,000-or-more yards. Lombardi also helped WR Jauan Jennings register career highs in receptions (77), receiving yards (975) and receiving touchdowns (six). Lombardi joined the 49ers after spending the previous two seasons (2022-23) as the offensive coordinator for the Las Vegas Raiders. Prior to his time in Las Vegas, Lombardi spent three seasons with the New England Patriots, two as the wide receivers coach (2020-21) and one as the assistant quarterbacks coach (2019), helping QB Tom Brady throw for more than 4,000 yards for the 11th time in his career. Lombardi also served as an offensive assistant/assistant quarterbacks coach with the New York Jets (2017-18) and four seasons (2013-16) in multiple roles with the San Francisco 49ers. Lombardi entered the NFL as a scouting assistant in New England, where he spent two seasons (2011-12) after being promoted to a full-time post when his training camp internship ended. He began his coaching career at Fordham University, serving as a student assistant coach for the 2009 and 2010 seasons. A native of Ocean City, NJ, Lombardi earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Fordham in 2011. His father, Michael, served as an executive for the 49ers, Raiders, Cleveland Browns and Philadelphia Eagles, as well as an assistant to the Patriots coaching staff from 2014-16. Lombardi and his wife, Michelle, have two sons, Dominic and Michael, and a daughter, Sienna.

Deuce Schwartz is in his fourth season as a 49ers offensive quality control coach. He joined the 49ers after spending the 2021 season as a defensive analyst at the University of Missouri. The 49ers offense finished the 2024 season with top-five marks in yards per play (6.2), total yards (6,397), yards per game (376.3), passing yards per game (249.1) and yards per rush (4.7). The offense was led by the receiving duo of WR Jauan Jennings and TE George Kittle. Jennings registered career highs in receptions (77), receiving yards (975) and receiving touchdowns (six), while Kittle led the team in receptions (78), receiving yards (1,106) and receiving touchdowns (eight). Kittle also led all NFL tight ends in yards per reception (14.2) and games with 100-or-more receiving yards (four). The passing attack also featured rookie draft pick WR Ricky Pearsall, who appeared in 11 games and registered 31 receptions for 400 receiving yards and three touchdowns. Schwartz joined the 49ers after spending the 2021 season as a defensive analyst at the University of Missouri. Prior to his time at Missouri, he spent one season (2020) as the assistant wide receivers coach at the University of Georgia. Schwartz joined the Bulldogs after spending 2019 as a defensive quality control coach with the Cleveland Browns. From 2017-18, Schwartz was a special teams coaching assistant with the New Orleans Saints. Schwartz first entered the NFL as a defensive coaching assistant with the Buffalo Bills, a role he held for two years (2015-16). A native of Suffern, NY, Schwartz attended Union College (Schenectady, NY), where he played quarterback for the school in 2012.

GREG SCRUGGS

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE LINE

7TH NFL SEASON (5 PLAYING/2 COACHING) × 1ST WITH 49ERS

Greg Scruggs joins the 49ers after serving one season (2023) as the defensive line coach for the University of Wisconsin. In 2023, Wisconsin finished with a 7-6 record where the defense ranked overall sixth in the Big 10. Scruggs returned to the collegiate ranks after one season (2022) as the assistant defensive line coach for the New York Jets. Under Scruggs' guidance, the Jets finished the 2022 season ranking second in overall pass rush defense, third in opponent passing yards (3,220 passing yards), tied for first in passing touchdowns (15). Prior to his NFL coaching career, Scruggs was the defensive line coach for two seasons (2020-21) at the University of Cincinnati following two years as the program's director of player development (2018-19). Before that, he worked with the NFL's Legends Development Program in player marketing and communications following his retirement from professional football. A two-time Super Bowl champion, Scruggs spent five years in the NFL after entering as a seventh-round selection by the Seattle Seahawks in 2012. Throughout his five-year NFL career with the Seattle Seahawks (2012-15), Chicago Bears (2015-16) and New England Patriots (2016), he played defensive lineman then switched to tight end in his final season in the league. Scruggs was a member of two Super Bowl winning teams (XLVIII-Seattle & LI-New England). Before the NFL, Scruggs played in 42 games (26 starts) at defensive tackle and defensive end for Louisville after just one season of high school football. In his lone high school football season, he posted nine sacks, two forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries and 51 quarterback pressures as St. Xavier (OH) HS finished as the nation's top ranked team, winning the state championship and finishing the season 15-0. In addition to football, he spent four years on the basketball team and three seasons as a drummer in the marching band and earned his bachelor's degree in sociology in 2011. Scruggs currently serves on the international board of directors and as a national spokesperson for Boys Hope Girls Hope, an organization centered on cultivating youth empowerment through the education. In 2020, he appeared in 'Black Boys', a feature-length documentary about what it means to be born a black male in America. He has one son, Koven.

ROBERT TURNER JR.

DUSTIN PERRY

VICE PRESIDENT, PLAYER HEALTH & PERFORMANCE

9TH NFL SEASON × 9TH WITH 49ERS

Dustin Perry is in his ninth season with the 49ers and first as the team's vice president, player health & performance. He previously served as head strength and conditioning coach for six years (2019-24) after originally joining the 49ers as an assistant strength & conditioning coach, spending two seasons (2017-18) in that role.

As head of player health and performance, Perry will oversee sports medicine, strength and conditioning, player rehabilitation, functional performance and nutrition. In his role, he will manage and orchestrate all available resources to ensure 49ers players are provided the best standard of care, with the goal of maximizing their performance and availability. Perry took over the design and implementation of the team's strength & conditioning program in 2019 and since then, Perry has assisted the 49ers in preparing the team for four winning seasons, including three NFC West division titles, four NFC Championship games and appearances in Super Bowl LIV and Super Bowl LVIII.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Perry spent four seasons (2012-16) as an assistant strength & conditioning coach at the University of Minnesota. During his time at Minnesota, he assisted in developing offseason and in-season programs, rehabilitation, and supplementation.

Perry graduated from Western Michigan University in 2009 with a bachelor of science in physical education and a minor in health education. He later earned his master's degree in applied kinesiology with a minor in sport and exercise science at the University of Minnesota in 2014. Perry is a certified strength & conditioning specialist (CSCS) by the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

A native of Marcellus, MI, Perry is married to his wife, Adrienne and they have a daughter named Rio.

Vontae Davis was deeply passionate about giving back, channeling his success as a professional athlete into meaningful philanthropic efforts that uplifted his community. His commitment extended beyond financial contributions — he was hands-on, present, and engaged, using his platform to inspire change and empower the next generation.

Today, the Vontae Davis Family Foundation honors his memory and legacy by continuing the work he cared so deeply about — investing in underserved communities, supporting youth development, and promoting mental health awareness. Through scholarships, outreach programs, and partnerships with local organizations, the foundation carries forward Vontae's vision of a more equitable and compassionate world. His spirit of generosity and service lives on in every life touched by the foundation's work.

Established in 1990.

"In 1984, I began working as a spa & sauna delivery person. I learned every aspect of the business. Along the way, I realized I wanted to do more for clients than just deliver their new spa or sauna. I decided to go into business for myself.

In 1990, the first location was opened in San Jose. In 1999, I moved our location to San Mateo. Since then, I have been proud to offer spas, swim spas, traditional saunas, and infrared saunas to clients."

Give a child the gift of nature and a lifelong sense of wonder.

One of the best things you can give your child or grandchild doesn't come from a store. It's time spent outdoors discovering the gifts of nature, right in their own backyard. Nature Explore resources give you fun tools and activities to give the children in your life a love of nature, lifelong learning skills, and an everlasting sense of wonder.

Go to arborday.org and check out Nature Explore. There, you can download a free Nature Explore Families Club kit and learn about other Nature Explore resources for connecting children with nature. Whether you live in the city, the country, or anywhere in between, go online to arborday.org and start seeing what a difference nature can make.

MERGING® VETS & PLAYERS

MVP empowers military, veterans, and professional athletes to thrive when the uniform comes off through fitness, health, and wellness programs.

NEW TEAM + NEW MISSION

VETERANS ★ PROFESSIONAL ATHLETES

By merging vets and athletes, we create an environment where these warriors can share each other's strength and experience, build a stronger foundation for more fulfilling lives, and positively influence their new team, families and communities.

WHO WE ARE

MVP is a community that empowers and connects our members through various events, communication, and trusted resources. Our members are provided with an ecosystem of support so they are never alone!

WHAT WE DO

We reduce homelessness, suicide, improve health and wellness, and much more! Veterans and Athletes come together weekly for a formal physical training and peer to peer support session called, "The Huddle," at no cost to them! This allows them to rebuild themselves mentally, physically, emotionally.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

We need your help to continue this mission! MVP has many sponsors and partners that help us operate and raise funds allowing our charity, a 501(c)3, to provide services and resources to enrich our members lives.

FIND AN MVP LOCATION NEAR YOU OR HELP US SET UP A NEW COMMUNITY CHAPTER IN YOUR AREA!

49ERS ALUMNI BOARD

The 49ers Alumni Board consists of former 49ers players who serve many valuable roles for the 49ers organization. The mission of the Alumni Board is to actively serve the community while being a valuable resource to football operations, and to aid the connection of past and present players.

GUY McINTYRE | Director of Alumni Relations

A fixture at right guard wearing his familiar #62, Guy McIntyre is the proud holder of three Super Bowl Championship rings. After a tremendous collegiate career at the University of Georgia, McIntyre was selected by the 49ers in the third round of the 1984 NFL draft. He spent 10 seasons with San Francisco and was a five-time Pro Bowl selection.

McIntyre currently serves as the Director of Alumni for the 49ers, where he oversees the alumni department and alumni coordinators. McIntyre has served as a coaching assistant with the 49ers during mini-camps and training camps since 1999. Over that same time he has also coached the offensive line at Division III Menlo College.

Guy is married to Kimberly. McIntyre has five children: Dejon, Mallory, Ariel, Alexa and Bailey.

Alumni Coordinators

The alumni coordinators take an active role in our day-to-day involvement in the community, and with our corporate partners and our fans.

STEVE BONO

Bono, originally a sixth-round draft pick of the Minnesota Vikings in 1985, spent 15 years in the NFL and was a member of the 49ers organization from 1989-93 and has one Super Bowl ring to his credit. During his career, he started 42 games and completed 934-of-1,701 passes for 10,439 yards and 62 touchdowns.

After retiring from the league in 2000, Bono returned to the Bay Area where he lives in Palo Alto with his wife Tina.

JESSE SAPOLU

A true gentlemen and an ironman of his time, Jesse Sapolu spent 15 seasons wearing the red and gold of the 49ers and earned Pro Bowl honors as both a guard and a center.

Sapolu is one of six 49ers to own four Super Bowl Championsip Rings and of those six players, he is the only one with a ring from Super Bowl XXIX. He was a member of the 1984, 1988, 1989 and 1994 Super Bowl teams.

After retiring from the NFL in 1997, Sapolu created MITT (Men In The Trenches), an offseason academy for high school lineman. Sapolu is also the co-founder and chairman of the board for the Polynesian Football Hall of Fame. Sapolu has four children, his oldest daughter, Lila; Luke, who is a deputy sheriff in Orange County; London is a superintendent for a shipping company at the docks in Long Beach; and Roman is an assistant coach at Fresno State University.

ERIC WRIGHT

A second-round selection in 1981, Eric Wright went on to play 10 seasons for the 49ers and was a two-time Pro Bowl selection at cornerback.

Eric is among the select group of 49ers who own four Super Bowl rings, winning Championships in 1981, 1984, 1988 and 1989. He also owns the unique distinction of recording an interception in three different Super Bowls.

Wright is involved in numerous projects around the Bay Area, including coaching youth football camps and clinics. He works for Channel Lumber. Eric and his wife, Judith, currently reside in the East Bay. Wright has three children, Erika, Samara, and Aven as well as one grandchild Eden.

Alumni Ambassadors

PATRICK WILLIS

Hall of Famer Patrick Willis spent his entire eight-year career with the 49ers after being a first-round selection by the team in 2007 and is a member of the Edward J. DeBartolo Sr. 49ers Hall of Fame. In 2024, Willis was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, OH. Willis now serves as an alumni ambassador, where he plays an active role in the connecting with current 49ers players, serving the greater Bay Area community and working with corporate partners and fans.

CHARLES HALEY

Hall of Famer Charles Haley played eight seasons of his 12-year career with the 49ers and is a member of the Edward J. DeBartolo Sr. 49ers Hall of Fame. He is a five-time Super Bowl champion, earning two in San Francisco. In 2015, Haley was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, OH. Haley now serves as an alumni ambassador, where he plays an active role in the connecting with current 49ers players, serving the greater Bay Area community and working with corporate partners and fans.

Faithful

49ERS FOUNDATION

49ERS FOUNDATION
Faithful to the Next Generation

The 49ers Foundation harnesses football to educate and empower Bay Area youth and beyond through collective and innovative community focused strategies. From award-winning STEAM education and nationally recognized youth football, health and wellness programs, to impactful community partnerships with leading non-profits, the 49ers Foundation is tirelessly dedicated to inspiring the confidence and collaboration youth need to tackle what is possible. Since 1991, the 49ers Foundation has raised and invested over $70 million back into underserved Bay Area communities. Through its direct service programs — 49ers EDU presented by Chevron and 49ers PREP presented by U.S. Bank — legacy beneficiaries, and support from the Faithful, the 49ers Foundation has helped level the playing field for more than 500,000 youth.

A LETTER FROM 49ERS FOUNDATION CO-CHAIRS, DR. JOHN YORK, DENISE DEBARTOLO YORK, JED YORK, JENNA YORK AND MARA YORK

For over 30 years, the 49ers Foundation has been committed to our mission, to Educate and Empower Bay Area youth and beyond. We believe by focusing the team's charitable efforts on the next generation, we are helping build a better Bay Area for generations to come. Our colors, red and gold, expand far beyond what we do on the field and represent both a passion for community impact and a standard of excellence in everything we do. Whether you are an avid fan or a casual observer, your belief in this team means more than wins and losses.

The philanthropic work of the 49ers Foundation provides our fans the opportunity to help change the lives of those furthest from resources in their communities. Since 1991, the 49ers Foundation has invested over $70 million back into the community to support youth and provide the tools they need to tackle what is possible. From its inception in 2014, 49ers EDU has leveraged the game of football and Levi's® Stadium to introduce STEAM concepts and career paths to nearly 500,000 K-8 students through our three-part Home & Away program. In 2009, 49ers PREP presented by U.S. Bank was launched to empower Bay Area youth to lead healthy lifestyles. Through an array of in-stadium and in-school programming, our staff works to engage youth through sport, physical activity, and character development that nurtures the growth of student-athletes beyond the playing field. To date, 49ers PREP has impacted the lives of over 140,000 K-12 students.

The 49ers Foundation stands beside our team in our commitment to excellence in communities across the Bay Area. The opportunity to introduce the next generation of student athletes to the power of sports is upon us with the rise of flag football. Our family could not be more excited to debut a new program, 49ers Flag, providing young people access to flag football across the Bay Area and free coaching resources to help grow the game inclusively for years to come. Furthermore, we stand beside them in our dedication to overcome any obstacles that stand in the way of the next generation of the Faithful.

As we enter the 2025 season, the 49ers Foundation looks forward to leveraging the team's unique platform to build stronger, more inclusive communities. Over the next 30 years, we plan to double down on our commitment to deliver free access to educational resources and tools for physical activity and wellness to provide well-rounded lifestyles beyond the classroom and field.

The 49ers Foundation is YOUR Foundation, and so we call on you, the Faithful, to join us in our commitment to improving the lives of the next generation and remaining faithful to our shared future.

49ERS PREP PRESENTED BY U.S. BANK

49ers PREP, presented by U.S. Bank, empowers Bay Area youth to lead healthy, active lifestyles through free, non-contact programs for boys and girls. With the growing popularity of flag football, 49ers PREP currently supports more than six leagues across the region, engaging over 1,000 participants and expanding access to safe, inclusive play. In the 2024-2025 school year, 49ers PREP continued to make a meaningful impact, reaching 15,000 students across five Bay Area counties. Beyond league play, the program offers a wide range of year-round initiatives, including skills camps, annual conferences for young women student-athletes, career forums, coaching clinics, and more. All are designed to advance the game of football and promote health and wellness for Bay Area youth.

49ERS EDU PRESENTED BY CHEVRON

49ers EDU leverages the game of football and Levi's® Stadium to introduce students to STEAM (science, technology, engineering, art, and math) concepts and careers, sparking curiosity and engagement in learning. Through standards-aligned physical and digital resources, 49ers EDU reaches students furthest from opportunity, serving as a catalyst for STEAM literacy and exploration. Now celebrating its 10th anniversary, 49ers EDU has reached nearly 700,000 students, prioritizing Title I schools across the Bay Area. With year-round programming, EDU empowers youth by developing 21st-century skills and foundational STEAM knowledge to better prepare them as future leaders of their communities.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

49ers Community Relations strives to build stronger communities through partnerships with Bay Area nonprofit organizations forging the path for positive change. Through hands-on service, 49ers players, alumni, and ownership volunteer their time to support and encourage marginalized youth and families, those facing medical and mental health crises, at-risk individuals, military members and families, and social justice efforts.

AMP SQUAD DJs

The Amp Squad DJs are the heartbeat of Levi's® Stadium, delivering the official soundtrack to every 49ers home game and spe event. From the Gold Mine to the 50-yard line, this elite group brings the energy, passion, and sound that electrify the Faithful.

Comprised of DJ E-Rock, The Les, DJ Amen, DJ Romeo Reyes, DJ Amy Robbins, and DJ Tony Tone — each member of the A Squad carries a personal 49ers story, deeply rooted in the team's legacy and Bay Area culture. Their connection to the Red & G runs deep, making their presence on game day more than just music — it's tradition.

Together, they represent the soul of the 49ers fan experience — blending hometown pride, iconic anthems, and unmatched ga day energy.

ABOUT LEVI'S® STADIUM

Now in its 12th year of operation, Levi's® Stadium has built a reputation as one of the premier destinations for sports and entertainment on the West Coast. After over 200 major events to date, in 2026, Levi's® Stadium will become the first venue in global history to host a Super Bowl and FIFA World Cup in the same calendar year. Super Bowl LX returns to Levi's® Stadium exactly 10 years after the venue hosted Super Bowl 50 in 2016 and will be the second time Levi's® Stadium has hosted the game.

According to studies Levi's® Stadium has been a massive economic driver for the region since opening in 2014. In its first 10 years of operation, the stadium has added $2 billion to the Bay Area economy, creating more than 12,000 jobs and paying workers more than half a billion dollars in wages. Hosting major events like the Super Bowl and FIFA World Cup at Levi's® Stadium continues to play a major role in that success. In 2016, Super Bowl 50 alone generated nearly $250 million for the Bay Area economy. 2026 will continue to build on that success with Super Bowl LX projected to generate at least $370 million, and the World Cup estimated to bring in at least $480 million for the Bay – putting the combined estimated impact from these upcoming 2026 events at around $1 billion.

Levi's® Stadium boasts a seating capacity of 68,500 with the ability to expand to more than 75,000 for special events, and is best known as the home of the five-time Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers. Drawing more fans closer to the experience than ever before, Levi's® Stadium features nearly 45,000 seats, or roughly two-thirds of stadium capacity, in the lower bowl. Overall, the stadium includes 1.85-million-square-feet of space that provides a distinctively California experience.

Creating a best-in-class fan experience is a major priority for Levi's® Stadium. The venue has been designed for fans of all ages, including kids. Located at Gate C, the Play Kind Zone has a variety of activities for 49ers fans of all ages. Kids 14 and under are invited to pick up their own customized "My First 49ers Game" certificate, sign up for the 49ers Kids Club, participate in beginner level football drills, enjoy the thrill of riding down the giant football slide, climbing over giant NFL cleats, as well as X's and O's. Everyone can stand next to life-sized 49ers players on the Measure-Up Wall.

One of the most technologically advanced stadiums in the world, Levi's® Stadium is a showcase for innovation in Silicon Valley. As of the 2025 NFL season, the stadium boasts the largest outdoor video boards with glass-to-glass 4K production in the league, enabling fans to experience the action on the field like never before. Accompanied by its own mobile app, the 49ers App, the venue brings the comforts of watching a game at home right to your seat. In addition to mobile ticketing and parking, and the ability to watch video replays in real-time on a handheld device, the stadium features a best-in-class cellular and Wi-Fi infrastructure that allows guests to stay connected throughout their visit.

Levi's® Stadium has now been awarded LEED Gold Certification three times by the U.S. Green Building Council, the most widely used green building rating system. The first came in 2014 when the stadium opened with LEED Gold for New Construction, while the second and third came for Operations and Maintenance of an Existing Building. When the stadium obtained their second LEED Gold Certification in 2016, the venue was the only one of its kind to twice be recognized for achieving the industry standard for sustainable design and construction. Equipped with a green roof, state-of-the-art solar elements made up of 1,162 photovoltaic panels throughout the venue, low-flow plumbing fixtures and the first rooftop farm at an NFL stadium, the stadium has been widely recognized as a leader in sustainable design. Additionally, Levi's® Stadium has established a new standard for sports and entertainment venues by using 85 percent recycled water for all of its non-potable water needs.

Levi's® Stadium was awarded the 2017 Facility of Merit by the NFL and the National Center for Spectator Sports Safety and Security for its efforts in performing above and beyond normal operations to demonstrate an innovative approach to enhancing safety and security. Previously, Levi's® Stadium was recognized by the Sports Business Journal as the 2015 Sports Facility of the Year and by The StadiumBusiness Awards as 2015 Venue of the Year over an international field of facilities.

2025 GOLD RUSH

For over 40 years, the San Francisco 49ers Gold Rush has established a reputation as a bright, talented and diverse group of community leaders in the Bay Area. Throughout the years, the cheerleaders have always balanced their 49ers involvement with a variety of educational and professional activities including careers as professors, lawyers, doctors, scientists, business owners, and teachers. Past and current team members represent schools like Harvard, Stanford, UC Berkeley, and Santa Clara University. The men and women on the 49ers Gold Rush are leading their lives with a purpose and passion to make this world a better place by inspiring our youth, breaking through stereotypes, and putting their efforts towards paving the way for future generations to come. The Gold Rush has appeared at NFL games and special events throughout Europe, Latin America and Asia and has performed at seven Super Bowls. Because of their international acclaim, the Gold Rush has also been featured on numerous television networks and specials including ESPN, Entertainment Tonight, MTV, Extra, Discovery Channel and the FOX Network. In addition, the Gold Rush performs at hundreds of community appearances a year, including many charity events that have a positive impact on the Bay Area community and society at large. The cheerleaders have volunteered with the 49ers Foundation, Children's Champions, Stanford Children's Hospital, Be The Match, Susan G. Komen Foundation, and Make A Wish, as well as local fundraisers and other non-profit organizations.

TELEVISION AND RADIO PARTNERS

KPIX 5/CW BAY AREA are the official television partners of the San Francisco 49ers preseason broadcasts and the flagship television stations of the San Francisco 49ers Television Network. Both are part of the CBS Television Stations Group. KPIX 5 has roots that date back to 1948 as the first television station in Northern California. CW Bay Area began in 1968 as the first UHG station in the Bay Area.

U.S. BANK 49ERS RADIO NETWORK

The 49ers flagship stations include KNBR 680 and 104.5 FM as well as KSAN 107.7 The Bone. KNBR 680 is the undisputed sports leader in Northern California. With its dominant 50,000-watt non-directional signal, KNBR 680 reaches all of Northern California during the day and eleven western states at night.

In addition to full game day coverage that includes a comprehensive live three-hour pre-game show each week and full post game coverage following each game broadcast, KNBR 680, KGO 810 and KSAN 107.7 The Bone will air unprecedented week-long coverage of the 49ers from training camp through the NFL playoffs to provide the most extensive up-to-the-minute coverage in the area.

THE RADIO BROADCAST TEAM

GREG PAPA

GREG PAPA

A 38-year veteran of Bay Area sports broadcasting, Greg Papa now adds the 49ers to his long list of calls for iconic Bay Area franchises, becoming the first Bay Area broadcaster to have a role with five of the region's major professional teams. He previously served as the voice of the Warriors (TV & radio – 1986-97), Giants (TV & radio – 2004-08), Oakland A's (TV - 1990-2003) and Oakland Raiders (radio - 1997-2017). Papa currently hosts NBC Sports Bay Area's San Francisco 49ers and San Francisco Giants Pregame Live and Postgame Live shows.

A three-time California Sportscaster of the Year Award winner, Papa is a recent inductee into the Bay Area Radio Hall of Fame. He has also done work for NBC Sports California, notably telecasts of California Golden Bears football and basketball and West Coast Conference basketball. After serving as the voice of the Warriors from 1986-1997, he worked as the lead broadcaster for the San Antonio Spurs from 1997-2000. Papa also spent 14 years as the television play-by-play announcer for the Oakland A's from 1990-2003.

After graduating from Syracuse University, Papa was a member of the Indiana Pacers radio and television broadcasting teams from 1984-1986. Greg resides in Danville with his wife, Angela, and their five children.

TIM RYAN

TIM RYAN

Tim Ryan is in his 12th season with the team's official radio broadcast as the color analyst alongside Voice of the 49ers Greg Papa. An accomplished analyst and former NFL player, Ryan has served as the color analyst for the 49ers preseason television broadcast in the past, and is recognized nationally for his current role as a Westwood One Radio analyst and his former roles as a NFL on FOX analyst (2002-2013) and a SiriusXM NFL Radio host (2004-2013). Ryan starred at Oak Grove High School in San Jose, CA, and was a San Jose Mercury News All-CCS selection. He went on to play collegiately at USC, where he was a two-time All-America selection (1988-89) and helped lead the Trojans to three consecutive Rose Bowls (1987-89). Ryan was selected by the Chicago Bears in the third round (61st overall) of the 1990 NFL Draft and played with the team from 1990-93.
